

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s. (not charged to Libraries). ## WORDS ANCIENT AND MODERN

By ERNEST WEEKLEY, M.A.

AUTHOR OF 'THE ROMANCE OF WORDS,' 'SURNAME,' ETC.

THIS book may be described as a collection of 'short stories' illustrating word-history. The author has taken a number of English words whose origin, mode of introduction or sense-development is unusually interesting, and has written the record of their lives from the time of their first appearance down to the present day.

An attempt is made to solve the etymology of many words described by the Oxford Dictionary as 'of obscure origin'; in other cases, widely accepted etymological superstitions are shown to be untenable. The author has tried throughout to adopt a method which may appeal equally to the professional philologist and to the educated amateur with a taste for word-lore.
