The Church in the Bookshop

John White

AUGUSTUS MUIR

The long awaited authorised biography of one whom many consider to have been the most powerful figure in Scottish church history since John Knox: a great reformer educationalist, and architect of the Union of the Church of Scotland. Illustrated 42s. net

The Way of the Cross

 WILLIAM MANSON

Absolute conviction and experience are expressed in the terms of classical theology in this last book of a great Christian scholar. With a tribute by Professor J. S. Stewart. 7s. 6d. net

A Private House of Prayer

LESLIE D. WEATHERHEAD

The devotional book that comes from a lifetime of thought, belief and action. The most human, sympathetic and effective work of our day to make possible "a closer walk with God." Standard edition 12s. 6d. net Presentation editions in preparation.

Stewards of Grace

F. D. COGGAN, Bishop of Bradford

"The preacher will gain from this book great encouragement in the worth-whileness of what he is doing as well as practical counsel as to how to do it with a greater sensitiveness." From the Archbishop of York's foreword 10s. 6d. net

John Wesley and the Catholic Church

JOHN M. TODD

A Catholic layman makes a serious comparison of the doctrines of Wesley with those of the Roman Catholic Church. 15s. net

Reality and Prayer

JOHN MAGEE

"This is a great book . . . It leads into new depths of thought. It marshals evidence from new areas. Its insights again and again are startling in their originality." DR. LESLIE D. WEATHERHEAD. 12s. 6d. net

THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

G. F. S. Gray

Paper, 7s. 6d.; Cloth, 12s. 6d.

'An immense amount of information is contained in comparatively small compass.'
Times Literary Supplement

BISHOP AND PRESBYTERY

W. R. Foster

25s. net

'Shows among other things that a conspicuous part of the Church life from 1661 to 1688 was the continuity of the Presbyterian discipline in kirk-session and presbytery. There was a remarkable synthesis of Episcopal order and Calvinist doctrine and discipline. This is a book which every student of the period will welcome.'
Expository Times

ADAM OF DRYBURGH

James Bulloch

30s. net

'There is little literature to tell us of the religious life of Scotland in the 12th century. The writings of Adam of Dryburgh are among the few that fill the gap.'
Times Educational Supplement

THE TRUTH OF RELIGION

J. B. Wilson

4s.

'A highly competent piece of work which examines carefully the language of religion. Mr Wilson is always fair and ever ready to face possible objections that may be raised to any of his arguments.'
Baptist Times

THE ORIGIN AND TRANSMISSION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

L. D. Twilley

'an exceptionally useful little book'

—British Weekly

'gives a well-drawn picture of the early days of the Church in the light of the New Testament evidence and shows how the various canonical books came to be written.'

—Glasgow Herald

8s. 6d. net

ELIJAH AND ELISHA

Ronald S. Wallace

'Mr Wallace writes lucidly and with real spiritual insight. Listening to such expositions a congregation could not but grow in knowledge and understanding of the Faith they profess. It is a volume to be commended not only to the laity, but to ministers, for it is a fine example of expository preaching'

—The Scotsman

16s. net

CHRIST IN OUR PLACE

Paul van Buren

A study of the substitutionary character of Calvin's doctrine of reconciliation.

'a good book and well deserves the praise with which Karl Barth recommends it in a foreword. Not only is it the first English book on Calvin's doctrine of the atonement, but it really penetrates into its subject and reaches the heart of the matter'.

—British Weekly

THE MUSIC OF CHRISTIAN HYMNODY

ERIK ROUTLEY

This book tells the story of the hymn tune from the Reformation to the present day. Written primarily for English readers, its emphasis is on those traditions which have influenced English hymn singing—the Lutheran and the Genevan. In their place are chapters on Welsh and American hymnody. Over 200 musical examples are provided and about 1,000 tunes dealt with. 30/- net.

CATCHWORDS, CHARACTER AND THE CALENDAR

W. GORDON ROBINSON

Sixty reflections on common catchwords that are "part and parcel" of everyday speech and yet show an attitude to life by those who use them; on personal and communal conduct and character; and on the Festivals of the Church 9/6 net.

THE DAILY ALTAR

FRANK JENNINGS

A devotional book for the ordinary man and woman. There is a Reading, an Exposition, an Illustration and a Prayer for every day in the year. 15/- net.

AN ARCHITECT PREACHES

H. HAROLD KENT

By profession an Architect, by vocation a Minister of the Gospel, this Canadian parson provides 24 sermons on questions of Faith that touch all men. 10/6 net.
