The American Society of International Law

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 "to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice."

The Society serves as a meeting place and forum for scholars, teachers, officials, lawyers and others, from some ninety-seven countries. At the end of April, it holds a three-day Annual Meeting in Washington at which current problems of international law are discussed. The Society also sponsors regional meetings outside of Washington in co-operation with other institutions. Salient questions of international law and relations are considered in depth by panels and study groups organized by the Society's Board of Review and Development. Works of scholarship are often published under the Society's auspices in connection with studies sponsored by the Board.

The Society periodically issues four publications:

The American Journal of International Law, the leading quarterly in the field of international law, has been published since 1907. The Journal is distributed to all members of the Society without additional charge, and is available to non-members at a subscription rate of $20 a year.

International Legal Materials, a bimonthly, is a unique international collection of texts of current official documents, including legislation, treaties, court decisions, and reports. Subscription rates are $15.00 a year for members of the Society, $25.00 for others.

The annual Proceedings of the Society record the papers and comments of the Annual Meeting, and are distributed to all members of the Society and subscribers to the Journal. Others may buy it at $5 a copy.

The monthly Letter to Members provides news of the Society and other organizations in the field and reports on pending international litigation.

Society membership is open to all persons of whatever nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Dues are: regular, $15 for residents of the United States, $10 for non-residents; professional, $30; intermediate, $10; student, $5. Application forms and further information may be obtained from the Membership Secretary of the Society.
