The Politics of Oil in Venezuela

Franklin Tugwell. A case study of the relationship between foreign oil corporations and the state in Venezuela, this book focuses on the strategies adopted by Venezuelan leaders to control the behavior of the world's largest and most powerful multinational corporations. Among the main themes of the book are the pattern of bargaining and conflict between the government and the oil companies; the impact of ideology upon the selection of alternative courses of action; and the interdependence of the domestic political process, petroleum policy, and rapid social change. $8.95
