ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEH ANNOUNCES AFRICAN STUDIES SEMINARS FOR COLLEGE TEACHERS:

The NEH Summer Seminars for College Teachers program will offer 84 eight-week seminars during the summer of 1983. Those teachers selected to attend will receive a stipend of $2,700 to cover travel expenses to and from the seminar location, books and other research expenses, and living expenses. The purpose of the program is to provide opportunities for faculty at undergraduate and two-year colleges to work with distinguished scholars in their fields at institutions with library collections suitable for advanced research. The 1983 Summer Seminars for College Teachers brochure, which lists seminar topics, directors, dates, and locations will be available locally from department chairpersons or from the Division of Fellowships & Seminars, MS 101, NEH, 806 15th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20506 in January 1983. College teachers interested in applying to a seminar should write directly to the seminar director (addresses are listed in the brochure) for detailed information and for application materials. The deadline for submitting applications to directors will be April 1, 1983. Of particular interest to teachers of African Studies are the following seminars: "Power and Class in Africa," directed by Irving L. Markovitz, Department of Political Science, Queens College, CUNY, Flushing, New York, 11367 and "The Political Mythology of Race," directed by Leonard Thompson, Department of History, Box 145, Yale Station, New Haven, CT 06520.

AREA STUDIES ZERO-BUDGETED:

(from the Chronicle of Higher Education, Feb. 9, 1983) President Reagan has requested no money for international education and foreign-language studies for which congress appropriated $26 million this year. Department officials said that area was one of many where spending was reduced in the Administrations effort to maintain support for higher priority programs.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA RESEARCH EXPEDITIONS PROGRAM/1983

ANNOUNCES "In Search of an African Hero," a folklore/anthropology expedition to Sierra Leone, July 11 to August 1, 1983. Team members will assist Donald and Henrietta Cosentino of UCLA collect hero myths, traditions, and legends, and related representations of the hero-trickster from the pop-culture of the multi-ethnic capital city of Freetown and neighboring Krio villages. Team members will work with local informants in gathering and recording myths, and in documenting modern heroes in bar murals, clothing, advertising, movies and society costumes and rituals. Accommodations will be in small city hotels, or on a college campus. Good observation and interviewing skills, ability to work well with people and a sensitivity to other cultures are essential. Background in anthropology or folklore and photography skills helpful. Assembly point: Freetown. Contribution: $1385. For further information and catalogue write: Director, University Research Expeditions Program (UREP), University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720. (415) 642-6586.

JALA ARRANGEMENTS:

Hans Panofsky announces that Northwestern University hopes to issue the annual volumes of JALA starting with the 1981 volume. The price has been tentatively set at $75 per volume. For orders contact Curator, Herskovits Library of African Studies, Northwestern University Library, Evanston, Ill. 60201.

WASHINGTON OFFICE ON AFRICA LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN TO HALT THE APARTHEID BOMB:

Jean Sindab of the Washington Office calls attention to the growing Nuclear Cooperation between Pretoria and Washington in a publication called, "Stop the Apartheid Bomb!" She asks the support of anti-nuclear, disarmament, and anti-apartheid movements in a campaign to mobilize as many individuals and organizations as possible in this effort to halt nuclear relations with South Africa. For more information contact: The Washington Office on Africa, 110 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, DC 20002.

BRUTUS ASYLUM DENIED BY STATE DEPARTMENT:

The State Department, in a note signed by Lawrence Arthur, Chief of the Asylum Division of the Bureau of Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs, has found no reason why Dennis Brutus could not return to England where his flight for refuge ended. While State recognizes Brutus' expressed fear of a return to Zimbabwe, it contends that he has a right to return to UK as a returning resident, and since he has not demonstrated any fear of persecution in that country, it recommends that he be so deported. In a statement issued 14 January, 1983, The Dennis Brutus Defense Committee promises further Motions to prevent the deportation. For further information contact: DBDC, PO Box 59364, Chicago, IL 60659.

ZED APOLOGIZES TO ALI MAZRUI:

Zed Press is the British publisher of Dirty Work 2: The CIA In Africa (London 1980) in which is included an article by Robert Molteno entitled "Hidden Sources of Subversion." Robert Molteno and Zed Press wish by this notice to withdraw unreservedly all defamatory imputations in the above-mentioned article regarding Professor Ali A. Mazrui of the Center for Afroamerican and African Studies at the University of Michigan and well known as a writer and scholar, and as the 1979 BBC Reith Lecturer, inter alia linking him with the CIA and implying that he is an enemy of freedom in Africa. Robert Molteno and Zed Press therefore sincerely apologise for any embarrassment suffered by or damage caused to Professor Mazrui.

MARCUS GARVEY PAPERS TO BE PUBLISHED

Volumes I and II of the Main Series of the Marcus Garvey and the UNIA Papers will be published by the University of California Press in the fall of 1983. The first two volumes, which cover the periods 1826-August 1919 and August 1919-August 1920 respectively, contain rare documents (letters, speeches, vital records, investigative reports) and photographs describing the early years of the Garvey movement from its beginnings of 1914 in Jamaica to its spectacular rise in postwar America. Volume III, which covers the August 1920-August 1921 period, will be of particular interest to Africanists, as the volume details many of the facts previously unknown to historians concerning the UNIA's negotiations for land in Liberia to carry out its plan for Afro-American immigration. Volume III is expected to be published in the spring of 1984 by the University of California Press.

WOMEN AND ART IN AFRICA:

An exhibit entitled "Women and Art in Africa" will be held in the Space Gallery of Western Michigan University from November 1-December 13, 1983. The public is invited to attend. Hours are from 9:00 am-4:00 pm Monday through Friday.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONSUL IN LA (From SA Digest, 6 January, 1983):

The Mayor of Los Angeles, The Honourable Tom Bradley, recently presented the key of the City of Los Angeles to the South African Consul General in Beverly Hills, Mr. Sean M. Cleary.
