

The Must-Read Book for Middle Eastern Studies

UNDERSTANDING ARABS, 5TH EDITION:

A Contemporary Guide to Arab Society

Fully revised and updated for the Arab Spring!

World-renowned professor of Modern Standard Arabic and respected Middle Eastern scholar Dr. Margaret Nydell creates a richly detailed book that breaks down the complex cultural boundaries between Arabs and Westerners, presenting an exquisite and expert view of Middle Eastern culture and society.

“A must-read for anyone wanting to comprehend the Middle East. [Dr. Nydell] provides profound insights into Arabs’ perceptions underlying political events.”

—Elizabeth McKune, Former US Ambassador to the State of Qatar

Arabic Sociolinguistics
Topics in Diglossia, Gender, Identity, and Politics
Reem Bassiouney

"While there exist a number of undergraduate and graduate textbooks on the sociolinguistics of English, the current book focusing specifically on Arabic is to the best of my knowledge the first of its kind. Up-to-date and comprehensive, it is useful not only to students and researchers of Arabic, but also to all those who are interested in sociolinguistics in general."

ANNOUNCING ENGLISH
TRANSLATION OF
SECOND JURJI ZAIDAN NOVEL

The Battle of Poitiers (ISBN 9780984843503), following the recently published The Conquest of Andalusia, is a romantic historical novel woven in the events culminating in the Battle of Poitiers in 732 AD. Maryam, a beautiful woman of extraordinary courage has many suitors including Emir 'Abd al-Rahman, Governor of Spain and southern France and two of his generals. The novel vividly narrates the failure of the Arab invasion of France and how the Franks, under the leadership of Charles Martel, united and saved Europe from an Arab conquest.

The novel, translated into English by leading Arabic literature scholar William Granara, provides a Study Guide for educational institutions. Written to engage as well as inspire reflection on issues that remain relevant today, the novel is intended for readers of all ages.

The Battle of Poitiers is available for sale at www.Createspace.com/3597667, Amazon and other outlets. Published by the Zaidan Foundation, Inc. Website: www.zaidanfoundation.org

DESCRIPTION

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a private, non-profit, non-political learned society that brings together scholars, educators and those interested in the study of the region from all over the world. From its inception in 1966 with 50 founding members, MESA has increased its membership to more than 2,600 and now serves as an umbrella organization for more than sixty institutional members and forty-two affiliated organizations. The association is a constituent society of the American Council of Learned Societies, the National Council of Area Studies Associations, and a member of the National Humanities Alliance. As part of its goal to advance learning, facilitate communication and promote cooperation, MESA sponsors an annual meeting that is a leading international forum for scholarship, intellectual exchange and pedagogical innovation. It is responsible for the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the premiere journal on the region, the Review of Middle East Studies, and a quarterly newsletter. An awards program recognizes scholarly achievement, service to the profession, and exemplary students. MESA is governed by a nine-member Board of Directors elected by the membership.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both U.S. Federal and British income tax regulations.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a non-political association that fosters the study of the Middle East, promotes high standards of scholarship and teaching, and encourages public understanding of the region and its peoples through programs, publications and services that enhance education, further intellectual exchange, recognize professional distinction, and defend academic freedom.
