Diamond Jubilee Year

1935 is our Diamond Jubilee Year, and we hope to celebrate it both by consolidating the progress of the past year, and by pressing still more vigorously forward. Our circulation, based solely on the worth of the paper and not on 'stunts' or specious advertising, is still rising steadily.

SPECIAL FEATURES

During 1934 we aimed at giving our readers series of special articles by acknowledged authorities, including, for example, THE SCHOOLS QUESTION by the Bishop of Pella; THE CHURCH AND FASCISM by Mr. Christopher Dawson and others; THE SLUMS by Father Martindale; and THE VOCATION OF THE LAY-BROTHER by various Religious. At present we are publishing a series on

THE MASS, by DOM CABROL, O.S.B.

As a celebration of our Jubilee we are hoping to produce a companion picture to 'The Breaking of the Storm.' It will portray in a dramatic setting Blessed John Fisher and Blessed Thomas More, and will be painted by Dom Pedro Subercaseaux.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH UNDER HENRY VIII

Edited by CHARLES A. NEWDIGATE, S.J.

In view of this year's centenary, Fr. Newdigate, who is Vice-Postulator of the Cause of the English Martyrs, has compiled this very remarkable series of extracts from Stow's Annals of England. Catholic Colleges, and all students of the period, will find this an invaluable compilation. Wrapper, 1/6

PRAYERS TO THE ENGLISH MARTYRS

Compiled by W. RAEMERS, C.S.S.R.

In this little book are gathered together for the first time the Mass and Collects of the English Martyrs, their own last words of prayer, and the authorised hymns, prayers and devotions, written in their honour.

Wrapper, 1/-; Cloth, 1/6

MORE PILGRIM WAYS

F. I. COWLES

Continuing his journey in search of England's ancient shrines which attracted so many readers to his Pilgrim Ways, Mr. Cowles now completes his circuit through north-eastern England, working his way round to Lancashire and St. Winefride's Well.

Illustrated, Cloth 3/8

56 YEARS A MISSIONARY IN CHINA

MOTHER ST. AUSTIN

Prefaces by Archbishop Goodier, S.J., and The Bishop of Nanking

An absorbing account of the life of Mother St. Dominic and her many heroic years in the Missions of China.

Illustrated, Cloth 5/-

EARLY IRISH LAWS AND INSTITUTIONS

EOIN MacNEILL, D.Litt.

Challenges the widespread belief that European civilisation is almost exclusively the result of Latin culture. Will provoke much controversy. Cloth, 5/-

ETHICS OF PEACE AND WAR

H. GIGON, Ph.D.

Foreword by Lord Howard of Penrith.

A concise and admirably clear exposition of scholastic theory examining the fundamental principles and their application to the problems of a just war and of preserving peace.
