CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to

THE EDITORS, THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES, at either UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DAR ES SALAAM, TANGANYIKA
or UNIVERSITY PRESS, CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions (35s. net per annual volume of four parts, post free) are payable in advance, and may be sent to any bookseller, or to Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W.1. Subscribers in the U.S.A. should send their subscriptions ($6.50 per volume) to the Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York 22, N.Y.

The Migrant Cocoa-Farmers of Southern Ghana

POLLY HILL

A major contribution to the economic history of West Africa, showing that for the last seventy years Ghanaian cocoa farmers have successfully operated a form of rural capitalism which also conforms with traditional African social systems. 'Certain to be a standard work of reference for students and researchers in this much neglected field of Ghanaian economic history. G. T. Odonkor in West Africa. 55s. net

The Maghreb Digest

North African Perspectives

Designed to fill the gap in current area studies research on North Africa, the Maghreb Digest provides a monthly review of political, economic, and social reporting on the Maghreb countries of Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia, and Libya. The review is based largely on a careful reading of the Arabic and French language periodicals of the Maghreb, supplemented by special reports.

Annual subscription rate: $12.00 (12 issues)

'The Digest . . . is a welcome aid to contemporary Maghreb studies. I recommend it highly.'—A. J. Meyer, Associate Director, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Harvard University.

The Journal of West African Languages

A new journal, published twice a year, which aims to disseminate a great body of new material on West African languages and to stimulate research in them. A more detailed Monograph Series will also appear at least twice a year. The Journal: annual subscription, 30s. Each number, 18s. The Journal and Monographs: combined subscription, 60s. Separate Monographs, each 18s.

The Journal of African History

An established journal, published three times a year, dealing with the history of the whole African continent and also containing articles by specialists in African archaeology, ethnology and linguistics. Annual subscription, 45s. Each number, 20s.
