

Church History Volume One

From Christ to Pre-Reformation

The Rise and Growth of the Church in its Cultural, Intellectual, and Political Context

Everett Ferguson writes from the perspective that church history is the story of the greatest movement and the greatest community the world has known. It is a human story of divinely called people who wanted to live by a divine revelation. As a participant in the heritage of Western church history, the author necessarily gives more attention to the history of Christianity in the West, but has tried to give adequate attention to other expressions of Christianity.

History necessarily entails some attention to names, external events, and the sequence of development, but the student should look beyond these things to the religious life of the people involved and grasp the perspective that this is the story of people. Such details are necessary to the telling of the story, but the real story itself is the people who were involved. Out of the conviction that the proper way to approach contemporary problems is historically, the author of this textbook hopes to bring a historical consciousness to its readers.

Awards of the American Society of Church History:

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1,000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The prize is limited to first books. The monetary grant will be made upon receipt of a commitment in writing from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Entries in their final form must be received by 1 November.

The Albert C. Outler Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years in ecumenical church history. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as concerned chiefly with problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements in any historical period. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in even-numbered years.

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1,000 to the author of the best book published in the two previous calendar years, originating in the North American scholarly community and presenting original research on any period in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible books or any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration; authors should submit a copy of the book. Nominations must be received by 1 March in odd-numbered years.

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an annual award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best essay published during the previous calendar year on any aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. Authors of eligible articles and any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Nominations, accompanied if possible by a copy of the article, must be received by 1 August.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize, offered annually, is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent graduate whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted by 1 July.

A work may be submitted for only one ASCH competition. For more information, or to nominate a book or submit a manuscript, write to the American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.

Church History: Studies in Christianity and Culture is published four times per year (March, June, September, and December) by the American Society of Church History. Membership dues for individuals in the U.S. and Canada are $50 per year for regular members, $25 per year for retired persons, and free for two years for students with the approval of a professor who is a member of the Society (after two years, students pay $25 annually until graduation). Dues for individuals in other countries are $75 per year for regular members, $30 per year for retired persons and students (with the same two-year gratis stipulations). Institutional subscriptions are $75 per year in the U.S. and Canada, $100 per year in all other countries. Single issues are $25 each. Please make remittances payable to "American Society of Church History."

Office of the executive secretary: American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.

Subscription applications, renewals, changes of address, claims for missing numbers, orders for single copies of current or back issues, and requests for permission to quote should be sent to the executive secretary. Claims for missing numbers will be honored without charge if made within two months of the regular month of publication.

Microfilm reproductions of The American Society of Church History Papers, series I and II, and of Church History, volumes 1–17 (1932–48), are available from the ATLA Preservation Board. Orders for these reproductions as well as inquiries about microfilm portions and photocopies should be sent to 1118 East 54th Place, Chicago, IL 60615.

Microfilm reproductions of Church History starting with volume 18 (1949) are available to subscribers and members of the Society from University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

Church History is indexed in the Expanded Academic Index (Infotrac), American History and Life, Arts and Humanities Search, Web of Science, Historical Abstracts, Religious Periodicals, and Academic Search Elite. This periodical is also indexed in the ATLA Religion Database, published by the American Theological Library Association, 250 S. Editorial office: Church History, Department of Religion, Florida State University, Dodd Hall M-05, Tallahassee, FL 32306-1520; (850) 644-9038; fax (850) 644-7225; church-history@admin.fsu.edu.

Send manuscripts, books for review, and requests about advertising to the editorial office. Manuscripts should run 6,000–11,000 words (or approximately 20–35 pages), not including endnotes, and should be printed double-spaced in 11- or 12-point font; endnotes must be printed double-spaced on separate pages following the text. The editors request (1) three copies of the manuscript (in order to protect the author's anonymity during the review process, the author's name should appear only on the title page of the essay); (2) three copies of a 200-word abstract (if Church History publishes the essay, the abstract may be printed above the first line of the text of the article and/or it may be included on the Church History web page at www.churchhistory.org); (3) an electronic submission of both the manuscript and abstract as an email attachment in Word, WordPerfect, or Rich-Text format (instead of an email attachment, you may submit your manuscript and abstract on a 3½ inch diskette). Further guidelines are available on request.

Church History is printed by the Science Press division of Cadmus Professional Communications, Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Periodicals postage paid at New Haven, Connecticut and additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send address changes to American Society of Church History, Yale University Divinity School, 409 Prospect St., Box 473, New Haven, CT 06511.
