

PALI TEXT SOCIETY.

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

PROFESSOR FAUSBÖLL.

DR. MORRIS.

PROFESSOR J. ESTLIN CARPENTER. M. EMILE SENART, de l'Institut.

Managing Chairman—T. W. RHYS DAVIDS, 3, Brick Court, Temple, E.C.
(With power to add workers to their number.)

Hon. Sec. and Treas. for America—Prof. Lanman, Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass.

Hon. Sec. and Treas. for Ceylon—E. R. Gooneratne, Esq., Atapattu Mudaliyar, Galle.

This Society has been started in order to render accessible to students the rich stores of the earliest Buddhist literature now lying unedited and practically unused in the various MSS. scattered throughout the University and other Public Libraries of Europe.

The historical importance of these Texts can scarcely be exaggerated, either in respect of their value for the history of folk-lore, or of religion, or of language. It is already certain that they were all put into their present form within a very limited period, probably extending to less than a century and a half (about B.C. 400–250). For that period they have preserved for us a record, quite uncontaminated by filtration through any European mind, of the every-day beliefs and customs of a people nearly related to ourselves, just as they were passing through the first stages of civilization. They are our best authorities for the early history of that interesting system of religion so nearly allied to some of the latest speculations among ourselves, and which has influenced so powerfully, and for so long a time, so great a portion of the human race—the system of religion which we now call Buddhism. The sacred books of the early Buddhists have preserved to us the sole record of the only religious movement in the world's history which bears any close resemblance to early Christianity. In the history of speech they contain unimpeachable evidence of a stage in language midway between the Vedic Sanskrit and the various modern forms of speech in India. In the history of Indian literature there is nothing older than these works, excepting only the Vedic writings; and all the later classical Sanskrit literature has been profoundly influenced by the intellectual struggle of which they afford the only direct evidence. It is not, therefore, too much to say that the publication of this unique literature will be no less important for the study of history—whether anthropological, philological, literary, or religious—than the publication of the Vedas has already been.

The whole will occupy about nine or ten thousand pages 8vo. Of these 6000 pages have already appeared. The accession of about fifty new members would make it possible to issue 1000 pages every year.

The Subscription to the Society is only One Guinea a year, or Five Guineas for six years, payable in advance. Each subscriber receives, post free, the publications of the Society, which cost a good deal more than a guinea to produce.

It is hoped that persons who are desirous to aid the publication of these important historical texts, but who do not themselves read Pāli, will give Donations to be spread if necessary over a term of years. Nearly £400 has already been thus given to the Society by public-spirited friends of historical research.

.* Subscriptions for 1891 are now due, and it is earnestly requested that subscribers will send in their payments without putting the Chairman to the expense and trouble of personally asking for them. All who can conveniently do so should send the Five Guineas for six years, to their own benefit and that of the Society also.*

The Society keeps no books, and its publications cannot in any case be sent to subscribers who have not already paid their subscriptions for the year.

Cheques and Post Office Orders should be made payable to the "Pāli Text Society." (Address: 22, Albemarle Street, London, W.)

. Man loves man. Discover what is truly human, not only what is old, in India, Persia, Arabia in Babylon and Nineveh, in Egypt—aye, and in China also—and Oriental studies will not only become popular—that may be worth very little—but they will become helpful to the attainment of man's highest aim on earth, which is to study man, to know man, and, with all his weaknesses and follies, to learn to love man. PROFESSOR MAX MÜLLER.—Inaugural Address, delivered before the Royal Asiatic Society, on Wednesday, March 4, 1891

PROSPECTUS

THE widespread desire now manifested for a supply of literature suited to the wants of those of our fellow-subjects in India, men and women, who have received an education in English, has suggested the present design of meeting that want by reprinting many valuable and interesting books, which have hitherto been quite beyond the reach of those for whom it is hoped to provide, and in many cases even unknown to them. These books will be issued in a cheap and convenient form, and carefully edited. They will likewise be furnished with Introductions, Notes, and, where that is deemed desirable, Illustrations. It is in like manner intended to publish original treatises, which, in the hands of competent authors, will render the best current thought of the time available to a large number of our fellow-subjects in India.

The series will also include reprints of several works relating to Indian Administration, Military History, Sport and Adventure, which it is hoped may prove of special value and interest to many persons in India and elsewhere, to whom the originals are not available.

The ever-widening circle of readers in all countries who take an interest in the Religions, the History, the Literature, and the Arts of India and the East generally will also, it is believed, find much in this undertaking that appeals to their various tastes.

Such is the object and scope of the proposed work, which will be published in a series of volumes to be issued at short intervals, under the general title of CONSTABLE'S ORIENTAL MISCELLANY OF ORIGINAL AND SELECTED PUBLICATIONS IN VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART. It will be sold, not only by those Agents specified on page seven of this Prospectus, but may be obtained from all local booksellers in any country.

The EXALTED PATRONAGE under which this Miscellany is ushered into the world is of itself a sufficient pledge that nothing will be admitted into our volumes which is touched with the spirit of party, or which can be construed as militating in any way against the principles of Religion and Morality. Although inspired by a strong sympathy with the ancient forms of Faith which are professed by our fellow-subjects in India, we shall feel no obligation to minimise any individual expression of Christian conviction in these pages.

In the subjoined list are enumerated a few of the publications proposed to be issued in the first instance, and they will appear in such order and succession as may best seem to suit the taste of those encouraging the undertaking. It is intended that, as a rule, each volume shall form a complete work, and be issued with a general or serial and an individual title-page.

Constable's Oriental Miscellany will be printed throughout in the best style, on suitable paper, the present prospectus being intended to serve as a specimen of the type and size. It will also be found that the Publisher has introduced into his books several features which, it is believed, are at once novel and certain to commend themselves to all purchasers.

Each volume will be issued strongly full bound in cloth boards, impressed with an Indian design, special attention having been paid to the elaboration of every detail connected with this department. In addition to the usual paper 'capping wrapper,' all copies intended for sale in India, or other tropical countries, will be enclosed in an outside cover of a transparent waterproof material, thoroughly closed in on all sides, so as to prevent the deterioration of stock from damp, heat, dust, and insects. This protection will also serve as a perfect substitute for 'the inside wax-cloth cover' (necessary during the monsoon months in India for parcels' post or other packages), over which an ordinary paper wrapper, for the address, postage stamps, and Post Office dated stamps, may be placed, as suggested by the Indian postal authorities.

The price per issue will be based upon the following scale :—

a ONE UNIT book will be sold at two shillings, or one rupee eight annas, nett ;

a TWO UNIT book will be sold at four shillings, or three rupees, nett ;

and so on.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
J. COLLIS BROWNE, and the word Chlorodyne coined by him expressly to designate it. There never has been a remedy so vastly beneficial to suffering humanity, and it is a subject of deep concern to the public that they should not be imposed upon by having imitations pressed upon them on account of cheapness, and as being the same thing.
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a totally distinct thing from the spurious compounds called Chlorodyne, the use of which only ends in disappointment and failure.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE
STATED PUBLICLY in Court that DR. J. COLLIS
BROWNE was UNDOUBTEDLY the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13th, 1864.

 To J. T. DAVENPORT, Esq., 33 Great Russell St., Blooms-
 bury, London.—DEAR SIR.—
 We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation
 this justly esteemed medicine has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum
 of the extraordinary efficacy
 of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa
 and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy,
 and as a general sedative,
 that have occurred under
 our personal observation.

during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power.
 We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike.—We are, Sir, faithfully yours, SYMES & Co.
