

“THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours”, says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.

THE WINDOW IN THE WALL

RONALD A. KNOX

This collection of sermons on the Holy Eucharist, of which three appeared some years ago in Heaven and Charing Cross, not only provides spiritual reading of the first order, but serves also as a kind of Eucharistic commentary on the events of the last two crowded decades. 15s. (Postage 9d.)

ROMANO GUARDINI

The Lord

'Without a doubt this is a book of the very greatest importance, wholly new in its approach, and traditional in its novelty. It has, above all, a quality of excitement which leaves the reader shaking and shaken with the wind of Pentecost' (Time and Tide)

A CARTHUSIAN

They Speak by Silences

A translation by a monk of Parkminster of two small books which have considerable fame in France and Italy. 'All those who are devoted to St Bruno and his glorious order will be glad to have Carthusian spirituality so succinctly set before them'

Praying our Prayers

'Step by step, line by line, he gives us fresh thoughts on the well-used words of familiar prayers. If we read him the result can only be that our prayers will assume a new spirit and a new liveliness, they will come easier to us and more happily'

ALBERT VAN EYKEN

The Status of Man in the Universe

A Christian's reflections on the present situation in philosophy and science. 'His own Christian insight shines throughout the whole book, yet humility is the keynote' (Time and Tide)
