CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions are invited from all over the world, and especially from scholars working in African universities. Articles written in languages other than English will be considered on their merits, and where necessary translation will be arranged. The average length suggested is 3,000 to 6,000 words, with occasional exceptions of up to 10,000 words. Notes on centres of African studies, research projects, and reports of recent conferences are also welcome.

All correspondence and contributions should be addressed to THE EDITORS, THE JOURNAL OF MODERN AFRICAN STUDIES, at either UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DAR ES SALAAM, TANZANIA or UNIVERSITY PRESS, CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND.

Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 offprints of his article free of charge.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions (35s. net per annual volume of four parts, post free) are payable in advance, and may be sent to any bookseller, or to Cambridge University Press, Bentley House, 200 Euston Road, London, N.W.1. Subscribers in the U.S.A. should send their subscriptions ($6.50 per volume) to the Cambridge University Press, American Branch, 32 East 57th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022.

POLITICAL PARTIES AND NATIONAL INTEGRATION IN TROPICAL AFRICA

Edited by James S. Coleman and Carl G. Rosberg, Jr.

The sixteen essays in this book focus attention on the role of political groups in the functioning and the development of the new African societies and the political systems of which they are a part. $10.00

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN NIGERIA

by Eme O. Awa

The first systematic treatment of the entire structure of Nigerian government and the actual working of that country's unique federal parliamentary system. Part One surveys the history of Nigerian political development. Part Two deals with the present governmental organization. Part Three treats regional governments. A final section is devoted to the unsolved problems of Nigerian federalism. $8.00

POLITICAL AWAKENING IN THE CONGO

by René Lemarchand

An analysis of the broad range of circumstances and motivations that have conditioned the emergence of Congolese political groups. These circumstances are related to modern political developments with a view toward uncovering and explaining the basic tensions and discontinuities that have affected the growth of Congolese parties. $7.95

THE CAMEROONS FROM MANDATE TO INDEPENDENCE

by Victor T. Le Vine

The colonial experiences of the Cameroons make that country a subject of unique interest among the emerging nations of Africa. This analysis in depth of the process of nation-building affords a study in which the elements of that process can be distinguished with unusual clarity. $7.50

Huggins of Rhodesia

LEWIS H. GANN and M. GELFAND

'A most timely, as well as an intensely interesting, biography of Godfrey Huggins, first Viscount of Malvern'. Yorkshire Post

'a work that is of great value to politicians today and for historians as a source book in years to come.' DESMOND DONNELLY, in Western Mail

'ought certainly to be read by any student of African politics.' Financial Times Illustrated 42s

Britain and Nyasaland

GRIFF JONES

'In this careful, well annotated and scholarly account of the history of Nyasaland and the policies pursued there by successive British Governments, he provides devastating ammunition for the charges made in the sub-title of the book—"a story of inattention, fitful care, political vacillation". For anyone seeking to understand the position of Nyasaland and its government, Mr Jones's work is most valuable. Well worth reading.' Times Literary Supplement

'a scholarly production of high order . . . the reader's interest will be held from first to last. Being a book written from within the territory, it uncovers many facts hitherto unknown and its authenticated description of Nyasaland life before and after Livingstone's day are revealing.' African Affairs 36s

Africa's Freedom

Some of the most thoughtful African leaders give their views on their countries' problems: how to finish the freeing of the continent, the forms of government most suitable for a newly independent country, the role of the trade unions, how to canalize nationalist energies into creative work, how to avoid public corruption, and above all how to unify an enormous and diverse continent, and give expression to the African personality.

Unwin Book

Paper 5s

Money and Finance in Africa

ERIN E. JUCKER FLEETWOOD

An attempt to describe the problems faced and solutions found by the monetary and financial authorities of Ghana, Morocco, Nigeria, the Rhodesias and Nyasaland, the Sudan and Tunisia, from the establishment of their central banks till 1962.

'a very broadly conceived examination of the part central banking has so far played, and should play in the future in giving substance to the 'right' of backward nations to develop into modern industrial societies.' Bankers' Magazine. 45s
