The Hakluyt Society Reprint

We are REPRINTING all (except superseded) volumes published by the Hakluyt Society in its FIRST SERIES which consisted of 100 volumes. These were published originally between 1847 and 1898. The series, as noted, will be available on subscription and parts of the set or individual volumes will be available also. For further information, including full list of titles, etc., please apply. Please make reservations for complete sets or supply lists or numbers of volumes needed to fill gaps. This Reprint is by arrangement with the Hakluyt Society and we are the sole publishers. Deferred or time payment arranged.

THE HAKLUYT SOCIETY, established in 1846, has for its object the publication of original narratives of important voyages, travels, expeditions, and other geographical records. Books of this class are of the highest interest to students of history, geography, literature, navigation, and ethnology; and many of them, especially the spirited accounts and translations of the Elizabethan and Stuart periods, are admirable examples of English prose at the stage of its most robust development.

The Society has not confined its selection to the books of English travelers, to a particular age, or to particular regions. Where the original is foreign, the work is given in English, either a fresh translation having been made, or an earlier rendering, accurate as well as attractive, being utilized. The works are printed (with rare exceptions) at full length. Each volume was done by an editor especially competent—in many cases from personal acquaintance with the countries described—to give the reader such assistance as he needs for the elucidation of the text. In all cases where required for the better understanding of the text, the volumes are furnished with maps, portraits, and other illustrations, while the author's original plates, woodcuts, or drawings (if any) are reproduced in facsimile. One hundred volumes (forming Series I) were issued from 1847 to 1898. Tentative price of the set $1,950, or per volume pro rata plus about 15%.

The Poetry of Edmund Spenser

A Study

By William Nelson. In this book, the first general critical study of Edmund Spenser to appear in thirty years, Spenser is presented as a highly sophisticated, serious, and thoughtful poet. Believing that the governing principle of Spenser's poems is intellectual and thematic rather than narrative, dramatic, or symbolic, Professor Nelson discusses first the intellectual core of the poems and then the techniques by which their meaning is given shape, precision, and power. $6.00

Early English Stages

1300-1660 Volume II

By Glynne Wickham. This volume offers an unorthodox view of the Shakespearean theatre in its full historical context and examines changing theatrical traditions and actual production techniques throughout the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. Emphasis is given to performances and theatre buildings of the period. An examination is made of the changes in aesthetic taste during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries which influenced play production in both London and the provinces. 125 illustrations. $8.75

Jean Bodin and the Sixteenth-Century Revolution in the Methodology of Law and History

By Julian H. Franklin. This work deals with the re-evaluation of jurisprudence in the late sixteenth century and its far-reaching implications. The existent legal system, based primarily on Roman Law, was subjected to reinterpretation founded on humanist ideals and scholarship. This resulted in a reconstruction of jurisprudence in the third quarter of the sixteenth century initiated by Bodin and his associates. $4.00
