
ROMAN SOCIETY

HUGH LAST AND DONALD ATKINSON FUNDS

Applications for grants are invited for financial assistance towards the undertaking, completion or publication of work that relates to any of the general scholarly purposes of the Roman Society, which are to promote the study of the history, archaeology, literature and art of Italy and the Roman Empire, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 700. Normally this assistance will be given to applicants of post-doctoral status or the equivalent. Grants will not normally be made towards expenses incurred in the preparation of a doctoral or similar thesis.

Applications, together with two references, should be made before 15 January. They should be sent to the Secretary, Roman Society, 31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP, from whom further particulars may be obtained.

HELLENIC AND ROMAN SOCIETIES

SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 6,500 coloured 35 mm slides covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Greek vases, Roman frescoes and mosaics, the Roman army, and Roman Britain. Slides of artefacts form a large part of the collection and include bronzes, jewellery and vases as well as maps, plans, models and reconstructions. A detailed subject index is available.

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips with notes may be hired by members. Filmstrips are also available for sale to members and non-members. A set on Greek Athletics, with notes by Dr Stephen Instone, is now available for hire or purchase as a filmstrip. Details of current charges may be obtained from the Keeper of Slides.

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP

President: Professor J.P. Barron

The Society was founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art. It maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies, and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London a Library of some 82,000 volumes with c. 500 current periodicals, and a collection of over 6,500 coloured slides, including sets of slides with notes, and film-strips. Books and slides can be sent to Members by post; enquiries should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four lecture meetings are held in London each year and there are joint meetings with the Classical Association in various parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, notes and book reviews, and Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of new discoveries in Greece and Greek lands. Both periodicals are on sale to the general public.

In 1993 subscription rates will be: full members £25.00 (US$55), student associates £10.00, corporate members £100, libraries £35.00 (US$80). Life-membership is available for £125.00 to those over 65 years of age, after 5 years membership. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or enquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone: 071-387 7495.

The Classical Association

The main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors some thirty branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is just under 4,000. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of £3; life composition for individual members, £63. Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review £13, Quarterly £14; combined subscription, £24). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £11. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by 31 January in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr R. Wallace, Dept Classics, University of Keele, Keele, Staffs. ST5 5BG.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.50, post free) and of the last issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1945-7 (price £1, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries should be sent to the Joint Secretary, Dr Malcolm Schofield, St John's College, Cambridge CB2 1TP.

ANCIENT SOCIETY AND HISTORY

THE ROMAN FAMILY

Suzanne Dixon

"By her sensitive examination of the complexities of the Roman family, with all the difficulties, tensions, and solutions afforded by the interplay of demography, law, changing customs, moralities, and emotions, Dixon shows the versatility of an institution then as now often declared to be in crisis."—

ANTHROPOLOGY AND ROMAN CULTURE

KINSHIP, TIME, IMAGES OF THE SOUL

Maurizio Bettini

translated by John Van Sickle

How did Roman family relationships differ from our own? What metaphors did the Romans use to express abstractions such as time? What can we learn from the cultural symbols of their religion and literature? Maurizio Bettini employs the methods of structural anthropology to examine a series of social, ethical, and religious issues characteristic of Roman culture in the classical period.

COMMUNITY AND SOCIETY IN ROMAN ITALY

Stephen L. Dyson

Setting forth a new model for understanding Roman communities, Dyson shows how rural communities responded to changes in the greater Roman society while still retaining their distinctive identity. He examines the "typical" Roman community during the High Empire and explores the life cycle of its inhabitants.

Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

The Society is the leading organization in the United Kingdom for those interested in the study of Rome and the Roman Empire. Its scope is wide, covering Roman history, archaeology, literature and art down to about A.D. 700. It has a broadly based membership, drawn from over twenty-five countries and from all ages and walks of life.

The Society supports

- an extensive programme of publication:
 - two annual publications—the Journal of Roman Studies, which contains articles and book reviews dealing with the Roman world in general, and Britannia, which has articles and reviews specifically on Roman Britain
 - two monograph series—the JRS and Britannia monographs (for further details see back page)
- a library of over 82,000 volumes and over 500 current periodicals, maintained jointly with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with the University of London's Institute of Classical Studies. It has an international reputation as one of the world's foremost Classics lending libraries. It also houses a lending collection of over 6,500 slides
- excavations, summer schools, etc. by the annual award of grants
- schools, by the award of grants to help the teaching of all aspects of the Roman world
- a programme of public lectures in London, and others outside London arranged with local branches of the Classical Association

Membership is open to all; no entrance fee or professional qualification is required. Members are entitled to:

- receive annually either the JRS or Britannia or both
- receive advance notice of forthcoming monographs at special offer prices
- use the library and borrow the Society's books and slides, either in person or by post, while living or resident in the UK
- attend the Society's lectures, of which a programme is circulated in September
- purchase back issues of the journals at favourable rates (see inside back cover)
