The Canadian Almanac and Directory for 1951

Edited by MARSH JEANNERET

FOR over a century the Canadian Almanac and Directory has served as the standard reference work on Canadian affairs, both domestic and foreign. During that time it has grown from a small pamphlet into its present format of over eight hundred pages. Every one of its more than fifty-thousand listings is carefully revised each year, and its accuracy and completeness have established it as the standard reference directory in offices, libraries, and institutions whenever they require information relating to Canadian matters. A brief examination of the many and important lists of names of officials, post offices, institutions, etc., in the Dominion, will indicate the vast range of information it provides.

Reprieve FROM WAR

A Manual for Realists

By LIONEL GELBER

"Mr. Gelber can rightly claim credit as a prophet", said D. W. Brogan when the author's Peace by Power appeared in 1942. Now in 1950 comes Reprieve from War, a brilliant summing up of relations between East and West—and of current conditions in the Western bloc and what to do about them.

Mr. Gelber, Toronto-born Rhodes scholar, R.C.A.F. veteran, diplomat, and authority on international affairs, has written "a manual for realists" neither optimistic nor pessimistic, but pointing the way to sober hope, providing we keep our heads in the present international crisis.

INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

This Institute has been established in the University of Toronto to provide for the more effective conduct of the graduate work in business administration leading to the degree of Master of Commerce.

This degree was established in 1937, instruction being provided in the Department of Political Economy. The programme of studies is laid down in the Calendar of the Graduate School. More detailed information about the programme for the session 1950-51 will be furnished on request.

The Institute will try to arrange a time-table of classes and seminars to suit the convenience of part time students holding positions in business in the Toronto district. Some of these classes and seminars will be held in the evening. Those interested should communicate with the Institute.
