The Gateway to the Middle Ages

in three volumes

by Eleanor Shipley Duckett

A classic account of the civilization that rose from the ruins of the Roman Empire

"... a history of this period that is as full of intellectual excitement as those centuries were of military excitement." —Christian Century

ITALY

Tells of the struggle to defend Italian lands against the Goths and the barbarian invaders from the North.

cloth $27.50 / paper $10.95

FRANCE & BRITAIN

The account of a people who lived with intense awareness of supernatural forces and whose savage deeds were countered by the force of Christianity.

cloth $27.50 / paper $10.95

MONASTICISM

Describes monasticism as it developed under Columban, Benedict, and Pope Gregory the Great.

cloth $27.50 / paper $10.95

Also by Eleanor Shipley Duckett

Carolingian Portraits

A Study in the Ninth Century

Duckett recreates the ninth-century world of Charlemagne through portraits of the outstanding figures of the age: Louis the Pious, Einhard of Seligenstadt, Amalar of Metz, Wilafriad Strabo of Reichenau, Lupus of Ferrières, and Hincmar of Reims.

cloth $29.50 / paper $11.95

Death and Life in the Tenth Century

The tenth century was a time of brutality, corruption, plague, and famine. But it was also a time when religion and art flourished. Whether writing of the witty and vengeful scholar Liutprand of Cremona or of the nun Hrotsvitha who strove to write Christian plays in Terence's style, Duckett offers a rich and vivid portrait of political and cultural life in the tenth century.

cloth $29.50 / paper $12.95

Sylvia Thrupp

The Merchant Class of Medieval London

The decline of feudalism, the growth of cities, and the expanding influence of trade put the merchants of fourteenth- and fifteenth-century Britain in a unique position to reconstruct British society. Thrupp tells of this powerful new social class, and of their attitudes toward family, religion, education, and other social classes.

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Outler Prize was established to encourage the critical study of ecumenical church history, broadly conceived, and to facilitate the publication of such studies. "Ecumenical" is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity-and-disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history; or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The following categories are eligible:

- a. Studies, chiefly narrative and critical, of ecumenical church history dealing with historical controversies and divisions, or with notable instances of reconciliation and consensus.
- b. Analyses of church councils, dialogues, and debates, or interactions between Christianity and other religious traditions.
- c. Biographical studies of significant leaders, or of persons whose involvement in ecumenical dialogue and action was noteworthy.
- d. Critical editions (preferably annotated) of significant ecumenical documents.
- e. Bibliographical reviews and evaluations in major areas of ecumenical church history.
- f. Pioneering studies that advance scholarly knowledge and ecumenical understanding.

The prize consists of an award of $1000 to the author and a grant of up to $3000 in subvention of publication (or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a book-length manuscript accepted for publication). The prize will be awarded annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 June. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

Theology of the Reformers

Timothy George

What others are saying about Timothy George's Theology of the Reformers:

"Based on superb scholarship, Timothy George presents a powerful study . . . It's an invaluable guide to opening up the issues so crucial to the church for the last five centuries."

—Donald McKim, University of Dubuque Theological Seminary

"George has an excellent command of the sources and secondary studies . . . The work, as an exposition of Protestant thought, is important for interpreting the history of our nation and culture."

—John H. Leith, Union Theological Seminary in Virginia

"Theology of the Reformers is well-documented, true to the sources, and presents the significant perspectives of the major Protestant reformers."

—H. Wayne Pipkin, Baptist Theological Seminary,
Rüschlikon, Switzerland

Theology of the Reformers is a thoughtful, in-depth study of four major reformers of the Protestant Reformation: Luther, Zwingli, Calvin, and Simons. While acknowledging the contribution of other approaches to the study of the Reformation, George looks at it as a religious event. He attempts to understand the mindset of the early reformers and of the age in which the Reformation occurred. He is careful to point to the relevance of the theology of the reformers for our time and how the Christian gospel is lived out in Christian faith today. The contents, treated in chronological order, gives special attention to two central themes—How can I be saved? and Where can I find the true church?

The first such study in English since 1866, Theology of the Reformers will intrigue and inform scholars, students, ministers, and laypersons who are concerned for a greater understanding and deepening of their Christian faith. Donald McKim says, "This is a volume that many Reformation historians and theologians will wish they had written."

PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Brewer Prize is a subsidy of $2000 to assist the author in publishing a booklength manuscript in church history. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. Manuscripts accepted for publication may be submitted for this award, but the winning manuscript must have printed on its title-page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." If competing works are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to topics relating to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 November each year, with return postage included. The award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Society.

The Philip Schaff Prize

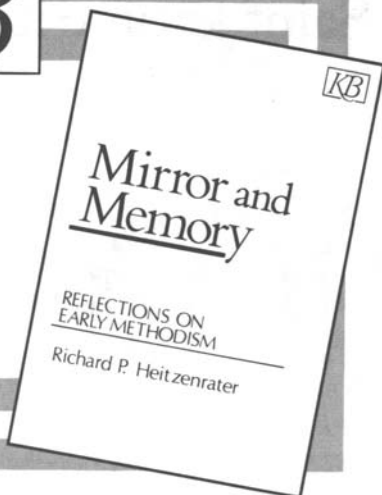

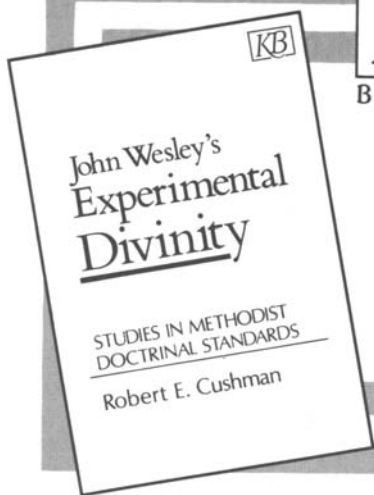

The Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. Books considered for the next award must have been published during the year 1987 or 1988. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration for the Schaff Prize. Copies of books nominated do not have to be submitted. Titles nominated for consideration must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 March 1989. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December 1989.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Richard L. Greaves, Chair, Committee on Research, American Society of Church History, c/o Department of History, Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL 32306, by 1 July each year. The prize will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December.

Mirror and Memory:
Reflections on Early Methodism
by Richard P. Heitzenrater

This book contains eleven essays by Heitzenrater on various topics in Wesley and Methodist studies. Each contributes to a reevaluation of early Methodist history. Most are based on Heitzenrater's discoveries of primary source materials that add new evidence to the consideration of basic issues of historical interpretation.

Available in March, 1989. $12.95, paper, ISBN 0-687-27069-3

John Wesley's Experimental Divinity:
Studies in Methodist Doctrinal Standards
by Robert E. Cushman

Robert Cushman seeks to describe John Wesley's "practical and experimental divinity" and to discuss the reasons behind its gradual disappearance through the course of American Methodist history. Cushman argues that the current lack of understanding and affirmation of this "practical and experimental divinity" is in large measure responsible for the doctrinal and spiritual malaise which he sees besetting The United Methodist Church.

Saint Jerome in the Renaissance

Eugene F. Rice, Jr.

"An important and beautiful book."—Charles Trinkaus, University of Michigan

Now available in paperback, this award-winning book traces the changing images and fortunes of St. Jerome from 1300 to 1600 and charts how culture—popular and elite, secular and sacred, pietistic and scholarly—celebrated those aspects of Jerome's life that best suited its own purposes.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The 1989 Annual Meeting of the American Society of Church History will be held in San Francisco on 27–30 December 1989. The program committee welcomes proposals for entire sessions, individual papers, or panels. The committee also strongly encourages sessions representing both genders. Papers may be on any aspect of the history of Christianity, and those related to Christianity in the American West and to events being commemorated in 1989 are especially welcome. Each proposal must include an abstract that summarizes its thesis, method, and significance, along with a curriculum vitae for each participant.

Please send proposals in five copies to Professor Elizabeth A. Clark, Department of Religion, Box 4735 Duke Station, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina 27706. The deadline for submission is 15 February 1989.

THE MELODY OF THEOLOGY⁵

A Philosophical Dictionary

JAROSLAV PELIKAN

The great theologian Jaroslav Pelikan weaves the polyphonic threads of philosophy, morality, history, and personality to create a singular portrait of his life and work. Two books in one, The Melody of Theology is both a dictionary of Christian theology and an intellectual autobiography.

"This is a rewarding and exciting book, from beginning to end. It shows the reflections of a master on his work, where the work continually reveals the author's enjoyment. . . . Packed with knowledge and insight, it informs, stimulates, and delights."
