PUBLICATION NOTES

CUBAN PUBLICATIONS

LARR has been receiving Síntesis Latinoamericana, a newsletter published twice a week by Prensa Latina/Agencia Informativa Latinoamericana. The central office is located in Havana, Cuba, and the European office, which directs the publishing of this newsletter, in Paris, France. The publication is actually printed in and mailed from Prague, Czechoslovakia. Síntesis carries reports on political and economic events in the various Latin American countries, and also has some sports coverage. For further information, write: Síntesis, European Division, 10, Rue Talma, 75 Paris XVI, France.

LARR would also like to call the attention of the readers to a publication it has been receiving from Cuba, "Casa de las Américas," published by the same. The journal is issued bi-monthly and carries fiction, poetry, articles on politics, economics, book reviews, and news. The editor is Roberto Fernandez Retamar. An annual subscription costs $3.00 Canadian dollars by regular mail, and $8.00 Canadian dollars air mail. No. U.S. currency is accepted. Correspondence is to be directed to Casa de las Américas, Unidad Productora 04, "Urselia Día Báez," La Habana, Cuba.

SPECIAL ISSUE

The East Lakes Geographer has put out a special issue on Latin America (Volume 6, November 1970). It is available, as are all issues of the journal, to individuals at a charge of $2.00 a copy, and to libraries and other institutions at $2.50 a copy. The journal has no rigid publication schedule and each issue that appears is dedicated to a special theme. All communications should be addressed to the Editor, Henry L. Hunker, Department of Geography, The Ohio State University, 1775 South College Road, Columbus, Ohio 43201.

NEW PAIGH SERIES

The U.S. National Section of the Pan American Institute of Geography and History has initiated a new series of special publications on Latin American geography, history, cartography, and, eventually, geophysics. This series is designed to stimulate research and writing on Latin America, to provide a forum for the dissemination and coordination of information, and to keep Latin Americanists abreast of current research priorities and goals. The publication series is being issued in the form of occasional papers—bibliographies, pamphlets, and monographs. Inquiries should be addressed to: Arthur L. Burt, Chairman, U.S. National Section, PAIGH, Department of State (Room 8847), Washington, D.C. 20520.

LUSO-BRAZILIAN CATALOG

The Scarecrow Press of New Jersey has just published The Catalog of Luso-Brazilian Material in the University of New Mexico's Libraries (961 pages). The compilation was done by Helen MacIntire and Teresa Gillete, both emeritus members of the library staff.

NEW HANDBOOK

The Handbook of Latin American Studies, vol. 32 (humanities), a selected and annotated guide to recent publications in art, history, language, literature, music, and philosophy has recently been published by the University of Florida Press, Gainesville, Fla. The price of the volume is $25.

NEW AND SUSPENDED PERIODICALS

Amaru, Revista de Artes y Ciencias, is published by the Universidad Nacional de Ingeniería de Lima, Peru. Besides literary essays, the journal carries articles of a scientific and social-scientific interest, and commentaries and discussions. Emilio Adolfo Westphalen is the editor. Amaru appears three times a year. Correspondence should be directed to Amaru, Revista de Artes y Ciencias, Universidad Nacional de Ingeniería, Casilla 1301, Lima, Peru.

The Boletín de estudios latinoamericanos, published by the Centro de Estudios y Documentación Latinoamericanos (CEDLA), of the University of Amsterdam, is a revision of the former Boletín informativo sobre estudios latinoamericanos en Europa. Number 10, June 1970 is the first issue of the semi-annual publication to appear with the new title. A new feature of the revised journal is the inclusion of articles. For additional information, write: Centro de Estudios y Documentación Latinoamericanos de la Universidad de Amsterdam. Mauritskade 63, Amsterdam – O, The Netherlands.

Estudios Sociales, published in Santo Domingo by the Centro de Investigación y Acción Social de la Compañía de Jesús, first appeared in 1968. The journal is dedicated to the study of social research in the Dominican Republic. There is a section on books. The quarterly appears under the editorship of Francisco Guzmán Venet. An annual subscription costs $3.00. Previous issues may be obtained at $.60 each for 1970, and $1.00 each, for 1968 and 1969. Correspondence should be addressed to Estudios Sociales, Apartado 1004, Santo Domingo, D.N., Dominican Republic.

ICACH, the publication of the Instituto de Ciencias y Artes de Chiapas of Tuxtla Gutierrez, Chiapas, has resumed publication. The journal was discontinued four years ago after the eighteenth issue was printed. In its "segunda epoca," ICACH is slated to appear twice a year. The publication is a general journal of arts and sciences and open to contributions in the Spanish language that have relevance to the state of Chiapas. The editor is André Fábregas Roca. For further information, write: Revista ICACH, Instituto de Ciencias y Artes de Chiapas, Tuxtla Gutierrez, Chiapas.

The Latin American Calendar, which the Committee for the Americas has published continuously since September, 1965, has been suspended. It was launched to fill a void in the media on news and events concerning Latin America. Since then, the situation improved considerably, and the Committee felt that the effort was no longer justified. The Calendar was supported entirely by its subscriptions. The Committee will now move into other areas of communications, principally public radio and television, in order to carry out its major objective, which is to build friendship among the peoples of the Americas.

Naturaleza is the retitled "segunda epoca" version of the journal, Física, Revista de divulgación científica. The new version carries the subtitle: Imágenes de la ciencia. The first issue, (Vol. I, No. 1, August 1970) carries articles on the desalination of the sea, self-defense of plants, the functioning of the stars, and aquanauts. Other sections contain editorials, news, letters, projects, and publications. The editor is Luis Estrada. An annual subscription to the monthly publication costs $12. Back issues may be obtained for $1.20 each. Correspondence should be addressed to Naturaleza, Apartado Postal 69-607, México 21, D.F., Mexico.

Among the numerous publications of the Instituto de Geografia da Universidade de São Paulo is Orientação, a journal devoted to a variety of writings on geography. Included in a typical issue are discussions of urban geography, energy systems, division and use of space in developing countries, and methodology in the study of geography. The journal also carries news and contains a bibliographical section. For further information, write the Instituto de Geografia da Universidade de São Paulo, Cidade Universitaria "Armando de Salles Oliveira," Caixa Postal n.º 20.715, São Paulo, S.P., Brazil.

It is with regret that we note that the Quarterly Digest of Urban and Regional Research has been discontinued with Vol. 17, No. 4. It was published by the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. The journal reported on Research Projects, Physical Environment, Demography and Human Behavior, Urban and Regional Economy, and Social Services. The publication was discontinued for lack of sufficient funding. The loss of such a valuable publication in this vital field is lamentable.

The Argentine Asociación de Psicólogos de Buenos Aires has begun to publish a journal, the Revista argentina de psicología. The journal is a quarterly edited by Ricardo Malfé. Besides articles, there are sections for commentary, news and notes, activities of the Asociación, book reviews, and publications received. An annual subscription costs $35.00 Argentine pesos. Correspondence should be addressed to Revista argentina de psicología, Editorial Galerna, srl, Tucumán 1427, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

The Revista del Centro de Estudios Educativos is a new quarterly publication of the Centro de Estudios Educativos in Mexico City. The journal publishes articles on educational problems in Latin America, and has sections for news on institutions, events, and publications of interest to those concerned with education. The editorial committee is composed of Guillermo de la Peña, Jorge Muñoz Batista, and Juan Antonio Vega. An annual subscription for the U.S., including air mail, costs $15.00. Correspondence should be addressed to: Revista del Centro de Estudios Educativos, Culiacán 108, 4º piso, Apartado Postal 27-321, México 11, D.F., Mexico.

CORRECTIONS

A recent publication was incorrectly listed in Vol. VI, No. 1 of LARR. Relación de la filiación de sangre y nobleza de don Bartholo García y Espilco by Padre Fray Juan Zambrano was not published at the University of California, Berkeley, as stated, but rather, at the Institute of Andean Studies, an independent corporation, at P.O. Box 9307, Berkeley, California 94709.

In the same issue of LARR, the book by John D. Wirth, The Politics of Brazilian Development, 1930–1954 was listed as appearing in both hard and paperback edition costing $10.00 and $5.75, respectively. The volume, in fact, appeared only in a hard cover edition, the cost of which, per book, $7.95.

In Volume VI, Number 1, p. 191, LARR reported that the Union of Radical Latin Americanists (URLA) had begun publishing a newsletter under the editorship of Ronald H. Chilcote and Joel C. Edelstein. We should have indicated that the editorship is circulated among different regions of the United States.
