ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The Auditors in their Report to the last Annual Meeting felt bound to express their regret at the amount which had to be written off for non-payment of Subscriptions, and at the very large sum which was outstanding on account of Subscriptions in arrear at the end of the year.

In the discussion which followed, the suggestion was made that the Editors should call the special attention of members to the Report, and we now venture to do so. (See J. M. S., October, 1913, page 682.)

At our request the Honorary Treasurer has kindly supplied us with the following statement of arrears :

Unpaid Subscriptions on December 31st, 1913—

For one year	.	.	71.
„ two years	.	.	42.
„ three years	.	.	15.

Those due for three years, amounting to £47 5s., must be written off. The loss to the Association is, we understand, yearly increasing, and the past year shows a marked increase over any preceding year.

If the suggestion, that members should give an authority to their Bankers to pay their Subscriptions, were acted on, much of this loss would not be incurred, and there would be a considerable and most welcome diminution in the Honorary Treasurer's work.

In future, the envelopes enclosing the reminders that Subscriptions are overdue will have printed on them a notice that they are to be returned if not delivered. Amongst Asylum Medical Officers the former colleagues of a member, who has left a particular asylum, can be helpful in forwarding the reminder if the address is known, or in returning it if unknown. In the latter case the expense to the Association would be lessened, as the printers would be instructed to cease sending the Journal.
