africa 1969/70

A Reference Volume on the African Continent from Algeria through Zambia

A new annual encyclopaedia bringing you full details of history in the making in Africa today—in politics—industrial development—economics—literature and the arts—social welfare—and sports in the year of the Olympics. The facts, figures, and personalities of advancing Africa in 1969 are examined from every newsworthy angle. The nation-by-nation survey is a particularly important feature and great attention has been given to making it in each case as full and as accurate as possible.

Special features in africa 1969/70 include:

- * Articles on major industrial projects in 22 countries.
- * A summary of principal events and economic development during 1968.
- * Statistical tables: a series of annotated charts giving production, resources, and development projects, with comparisons to world figures.
- * A review of African participation in the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City.
- * Over 200 useful addresses.

africa 1969/70 was compiled and edited by 40 specialist editors and journalists who are the team behind the weekly French international news magazine Jeune Afrique.
