MARRIAGE COUNSELLING

Library of Pastoral Care

Kenneth Preston — 15s

The author, a trained and experienced marriage counsellor, considers in detail the most common pastoral problems which married couples are likely to bring to the counsellor, the attitudes which often underlie them, and the most fruitful ways of trying to help such couples. Ready 6 March

MINISTERIAL PRIESTHOOD

R. C. Moberly — cloth 35s, paper 21s

A famous book, long out of print, which remains amazingly apposite to current theological concerns. Dr A. T. Hanson contributes a long critical foreword to this new edition. Ready 6 March

THE APOSTOLIC TRADITION OF ST HIPPOLYTUS

Gregory Dix, Editor — 30s

"The importance of the Apostolic Tradition is too well recognised to need emphasis, similarly the value of the edition of the late Dom Gregory requires no stress. Its reissue, with corrections, preface, and bibliography by Dr Henry Chadwick, is most welcome. . . . A first class-edition which all students of the Fathers and of the liturgy need to possess."

J. G. Davies: View Review

LAW, PROPHETS, AND WRITINGS

J. N. Schofield — 50s

"Bearing on every page the marks of quiet, assured judgment and ripe scholarship." D. R. Jones: View Review

FURTHER ESSAYS IN EARLY ROMAN LITURGY

Alcuin Club Collections, No. 50

G. G. Willis — 45s

Five essays on the Roman Stational Liturgy, The Variable Prayers of the Roman Mass, the Consecration of Churches down to the 9th century, St Gregory the Great and the Lord's Prayer in the Roman Mass, and Early English Liturgy from Augustine to Alcuin.

THE PHILOSOPHICAL JOURNAL

Transactions of the Royal Philosophical Society of Glasgow

The Philosophical Journal is published on behalf of the Royal Philosophical Society of Glasgow which was founded in 1802 and has, in changing circumstances, maintained its role as a forum for study and discussion on matters of public concern and interest.

The Society has always provided common ground for the expert and the interested enquirer; this outlook is reflected in the contents of The Philosophical Journal which offers papers on a variety of topics, scientific, literary, historical and philosophical, written with intellectual integrity but free from technical or professional jargon. Some papers record the substance of lectures given before the Society and others are specially commissioned or contributed. Book reviews are included in each issue.

Since its inauguration in 1964 the Journal has achieved a wide circulation, both in universities and among interested members of the public from many countries.

John Knox

Jasper Ridley

'... sympathetic but clear-sighted. It is hard to make a real man out of one who is so much a traditional figure; but Mr Ridley has succeeded, and has given us a great understanding both of Knox and of his times.' The Scotsman

The Text of the New Testament

Its Transmission, Corruption, and Restoration

Bruce M. Metzger

This book supplies information concerning both the science and the art of textual criticism as applied to the New Testament. It is written for students, and, with an eye to their needs, the author discusses a wide variety of textual problems, ranging from the very simple to the more complex. This second edition embodies references to more than 150 additional books and articles dealing with Greek manuscripts, early versions, and critical studies of recently discovered witnesses to the text of the New Testament. The Church and Christian Union

The Bampton Lectures 1964

Stephen Neill

'Here is a book that reinforces the conviction that we have everything to gain by going forward together in joint, calm, study, leaving behind the "ridiculous, waste, sad time" of the polemical past.' Theology 70/- net

A Patristic Greek Lexicon

Fifth Fascicle

Edited by G. W. H. Lampe

The purpose of this Lexicon is to provide a summary history of the use of all theologically important words by the Greek Christian writers of the period from the Apostolic Fathers to A.D. 800. This fascicle, which completes the work, includes ten pages of addenda and corrigenda. The first four fascicles are also available. 84/- net £22 the set
