VOL. 37, NO. 1, MARCH 2002

PURPOSE AND FOCUS

The Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis (JFQA) publishes theoretical and empirical research in financial economics. Topics include corporate finance, investments, capital and security markets, and quantitative methods of particular relevance to financial researchers.

Opinions expressed in the JFQA are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the University of Washington School of Business Administration.

For specific information concerning subscriptions, submissions, single-copy orders, missing issues, permission to reprint, or advertising, write, call, fax, or e-mail the JFQA office.

SUBMISSIONS

It is JFQA policy to give prompt attention to all submitted manuscripts. Consistent with this policy, honoraria are paid to referees who provide timely reviews.

Send manuscripts in quadruplicate (or electronic submissions in PDF) with $125 submission fee for subscribers ($170 for non-subscribers) to the Managing Editors. Checks must be payable to the JFQA in U.S. dollars for deposit in a U.S. bank. VISA, MasterCard, and American Express are accepted. Style guides for preparing manuscripts can be found in each JFQA issue or at the JFQA web site.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Subscriptions, which must be prepaid and renewed annually, start with the next available issue unless otherwise requested. Checks or money orders must be payable to the JFQA in U.S. dollars for deposit in a U.S. bank. VISA, MasterCard, and American Express are accepted. Use the subscription form at the back of this issue or print the form from the JFQA web site. Upon request, electronic subscriptions are available in PDF files. Claims for missing issues must be made within six months of the date of publication.
