THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R. In all 13 volumes were published in 35 issues. Back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have recently subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £1.75 ($4); per volume £3.50 ($8)

It is intended to publish one final volume (Vol. XIV), which will contain an Index to the fourteen volumes during 1978.

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes, including the Index, will be available at £50 ($115)

Towards Utopia

A Study of Brecht

Keith A. Dickson

'Readable, scholarly, and extremely useful. . . . There are more challenging critics of Brecht, but I don't know of a study which is both so accessible and so thoroughly informative about his teeming art.' New Statesman. 'He structures his book most lucidly and learnedly. . . . This systematic discussion of the dramas under the broader ideological rubrics makes them mutually illuminating, and casts special light on the minor dramas.' British Book News. £10

Can You Find Me

Christopher Fry

'Can You Find Me is a book full of memories of the daily lives, fears, and sufferings of his family. . . . Given nothing but a typewriter and his ancestors Mr Fry has written something which surpasses all his past achievements.' John Mortimer in the Sunday Times. Illustrated £5.95

Boesman and Lena and Other Plays

The Blood Knot, People are Living There, Hello and Goodbye, Boesman and Lena

Athol Fugard

This is a collection of four of Athol Fugard's best plays, which were all written in the 1960s. They all admirably demonstrate the qualities of sensitivity, humour, and sense of dialogue which have made Fugard one of the most widely-acclaimed dramatists writing today. £2.50 Oxford Paperbacks

The Plays of William Wycherley

Edited by Arthur Friedman

This one-volume edition of Wycherley's four plays consists of texts of Love in a Wood, The Gentleman Dancing Master, The Country-Wife, and The Plain Dealer. There is a general introduction, and a separate introduction and textual appendix to each play, giving information about its composition and sources, production, reception, and stage history up to about 1800. £28 Oxford English Texts
