International Documents and Analysis

A Major New Series in International Relations

General Editor: Marc Weller, Centre of International Studies, University of Cambridge

This Series presents the key materials necessary for an understanding of significant episodes or issues in international relations. The documents are carefully selected and accompanied by original and critical expert analysis. Each volume opens with a chronology of events and a general introduction highlighting the major issues raised by the materials. The developments covered in each chapter are also subjected to substantive analysis, identifying the actors involved, the relevance and impact of their actions, and placing the individual documents in context.

Volume 1: The Crisis in Kosovo 1989-1999: From the Dissolution of Yugoslavia to Rambouillet and the Outbreak of Hostilities. History of the region and perspectives of the parties, constitutional developments 1989-1999, early attempts to address the crisis, first round of hostilities, displacement of 1998, OSCE Verification Mission, the Hill negotiation process and the Rambouillet conference, commencement of NATO armed action. 504 pp. soft cover, £ 29.90/$49 plus p & p, ISBN 1 903033 00 4.

Symposium: State Reconstruction After Civil Conflict
Edited by Ruth Wedgwood and Harold K. Jacobson
Ending the fighting in Bosnia, Kosovo, Rwanda, and East Timor has not solved the problem of social reconstruction. This multidisciplinary symposium asks how the international community can contribute to the process of reconciliation after civil conflict—by restoring courts and accountability, addressing the memory of violence and atrocity, and opening economies to investment-based growth.
