

Announcing a new series in Middle Eastern studies—

Moroccan Islam

Tradition and Society in a Pilgrimage Center

By Dale F. Eickelman

This book is one of the first comprehensive studies of Islam as locally understood in the Middle East. Specifically, it is concerned with the prevalent North African belief that certain men, called marabouts, have a special relation to God that enables them to serve as intermediaries and to influence the well-being of their clients and kin. Dale F. Eickelman examines the Moroccan pilgrimage center of Boujad and unpublished French and Moroccan archival materials related to it to show how popular Islam has been modified by its adherents to accommodate new social and economic realities.

Modern Middle East Series, No. 1
Sponsored by the Center for Middle Eastern Studies, University of Texas at Austin
ca. 352 pages, $15.95

Also available—

Nubians in Egypt

Peaceful People

Ethnographic Essay by Robert A.
Fernea

Photographs by Georg Gerster
Architectural Notes and Drawings by Horst Jaritz

146 pages, $15.00

University of Texas Press

P. O. Box 7819
Austin / Texas 78712

Arab Authors

Editorial Advisor: DENYS JOHNSON-DAVIES

Heinemann announces the launching of this new series at a time when there is immense interest in the Arab world. Its primary aim is to introduce the most interesting contemporary Arab writers to the English speaking world by means of excellent translations.

MIDAQ ALLEY

Naguib Mahfouz

Midaq Alley is probably Naguib Mahfouz's most popular work.

£1.50 net

FATE OF A COCKROACH
and other plays of freedom

Tewfik al-Hakim

Fate of a Cockroach is one of two full-length plays which have been placed with two short plays not only to exemplify the best of Tewfik al-Hakim's writing but also to show its variety of subject matter and style.

£1.40 net

Heinemann Educational Books Ltd.,
48 Charles Street, London W1X 8AH

SEASON OF MIGRATION TO THE NORTH

Tayeb Salih

"Season of Migration to the North - An Arabian Nights in reverse enclosing a pithy moral about international misconceptions and delusions." The Observer, London.

£1.30 net

MODERN ARABIC SHORT STORIES

Selected and translated by Denys Johnson-Davies

These stories, cleverly chosen and admirably translated, represent a most interesting phase in the continuing renaissance of Arabic literature.

£1.50 net