

Please send BBS your email address

All BBS Associates and any non-Associates who have served as referees, commentators or authors, or who are qualified and interested in serving as referees or commentators for BBS:

Please send us your electronic mail address, if you have one. (If you don't have one, you are strongly urged to look into the advantages of getting one -- not only for BBS's sake!)

BBS is implementing more and more of its peer communication functions by electronic mail. This not only increases the speed and efficiency of BBS's interaction with the world biobehavioral and cognitive science community, but it dramatically increases its scope and range as well. Abstracts can be circulated by email in advance to allow potential commentators to nominate themselves. Referee reports can be submitted by email. The BBS Associateship can be more representatively canvassed to determine what topics and authors they would like to see treated in BBS. New Associates can be nominated by email, etc.

Electronic mail addresses can be sent to our regular mail address. (Any available departmental or institutional email directories would be very helpful too.)

Or they can be sent by electronic mail to any of the following electronic mail addresses. (Because email is not yet reliable, please try several until you receive confirmation that your message has been received.)
