IONESCO'S IMPERATIVES

The Politics of Culture

"... Lamont approaches the highly personalized texture of Ionesco's theater from the vantage point of a profound understanding of and sympathy for this quintessential absurdist playwright, coupled with a critical distance and a truly remarkable frame of theatrical reference which allows her to take Ionesco's true measure. . . . This is a masterful study!" —Tom Bishop, New York University

David Bradby

THE THEATER OF MICHEL VINAVER

"... a most welcome addition to the sparse literature on contemporary French playwrights in English. The pace is brisk; the important details of Vinaver's plays are sharply observed and Bradby expertly places Vinaver in the larger context of the theater and politics of his time." —Philippa Wehle, State University of New York at Purchase
