

THEATRE RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL

VOLUME 25 NUMBER 2 SUMMER 2000

Oxford University Press in Association with the International Federation for Theatre Research

Please send all correspondence to Brian Singleton, Assistant Editor, Samuel Beckett Centre, Trinity College, Dublin 2, Ireland

NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

1. Contributions should be in correct English. Two copies of all manuscripts should be sent to the Assistant Editor, Samuel Beckett Centre, Trinity College, Dublin 2, Ireland. If possible, an electronic version (ideally in Apple Mac Word 5) should also be included.
2. Articles should not exceed 4000 words and must be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 200 words which should be a succinct condensation of the paper.
3. Manuscripts should be typed double-spaced with wide margins.
4. Illustrations (reproducible photographs or line drawings) should be carefully labelled and captioned.
5. Notes must be listed at the end of the manuscript.
6. All articles will be acknowledged upon receipt. Authors should be informed of a decision within six months of receipt.
7. Manuscripts should be checked carefully before submission to avoid difficulties at the proof stage.
8. Book reviews are usually by invitation, but the editors are always ready to consider offers to undertake reviewing.
9. Twenty-five complimentary offprints of each article will be sent to authors; additional offprints are available at the author's expense. Book reviewers will receive a complimentary copy of the journal.
10. Manuscripts are accepted on the understanding that they are original contributions, unpublished and not on offer to another publication.
11. It is a condition of publication in the Journal that authors assign copyright to Oxford University Press. This ensure that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. In assigning copyright, Authors may use their own material in other publications provided that the Journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication and Oxford University Press is notified in writing and in advance.

Theatre Research International is published by Oxford University Press for the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale.

The Journal covers the historical, critical, and theoretical study of documentation of drama, conceived as the art of the theatre and publishes original articles on performance, acting and production techniques, theatre architecture, and actors' social conditions.

The motif on our cover was designed by Josef Svoboda for Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales in 1966 and presented to the International Federation for Theatre Research/Fédération Internationale pour la Recherche Théâtrale.

Theatre Research International is published three times a year, in Spring, Summer and Autumn at a price of £75.00 (UK and Europe) $147 (Rest of world), with single issues at £32 (UK and Europe) $61 (Rest of world).
