• Fusion Magazine. Some people read it, some don't. Often it's exciting, sometimes not. But it's usually fun. Not just a rock magazine, so it won't insult your intelligence, but something to respond and react to.
12 issues + free album $6

Some magazines don't try to please everybody. Instead, they try to please people with special interests. Not surprisingly, they're called "special interest" magazines. Whatever your age, occupation, geographical location, hobby, sex, field of study, avocation, pastime, intellectual tastes or religious, political or philosophical persuasion, chances are there's a special interest magazine for you, published by people who share your special interest.

There are over 20,000 special interest publications in the U.S. today. Several of the best are presented here. You may subscribe to any one — or ones — that interest you, under the rates specified, and under this guarantee: if you're not entirely satisfied, each publisher guarantees that you may cancel at any time and receive an immediate and unquestioned refund covering the balance of your subscription.

Look over the selections carefully. Isn't there a special interest magazine here that specially interests you? One that you've been meaning to subscribe to? Now's your chance. To order, just fill in the coupon and return it. Send no money — the magazines you choose will bill you.

(Note: You must send payment with your order only on magazines marked *)

Commentary, published by the American Jewish Committee, features articles by prominent authors on "now" social issues, politics, and people, together with reviews and special reports.
1 year (12 issues) $10

A monthly journal of Rock Culture, Booze and Burger Visions. Unbeatable coverage of the contemporary scene, movies, books, sports, politics, trash and especially the music. Truly outrageous articles.
12 issues + free record $6.50

Just fill in and return the coupon to subscribe to any of these magazines on a guaranteed basis

What goes on behind the scenes — from production to stage management to costume design. The professional journal for everyone in theatre.
