

Early China

Volume 42, 2019

Guidelines for Preparation of Manuscripts

Early China is a specialized journal devoted to the archaeology, art, history, language, literature, philosophy, religion, science and technology of China from the Neolithic through the Han. Published annually by the Society for the Study of Early China and Cambridge University Press, it includes articles based on original research, occasional translations of seminal articles written in Chinese, reviews of scholarship including both Western-language monographs and developments in China, Taiwan and Japan, and comprehensive bibliographies of works in Western languages. Contributors need not be members of the Society for the Study of Early China, but all submissions other than those expressly commissioned by the editorial board are subject to peer review.

Submissions for future issues should be sent, in triplicate, to Professor Sarah Allan, Editor, Early China, Dept. of Asian and Middle Eastern Languages and Literatures, HB 6191 Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH 03755, USA. Electronic submissions are also acceptable and may be sent to: sarah.allan@dartmouth.edu in both Word document and PDF formats. As manuscripts are reviewed anonymously, please remove the author's name from the manuscript and any identifying references in the footnotes (such as "see my article xxx"). Books for review should be sent to the Book Review Editor, Professor Anne Kinney, 4185 Garth Road, Charlottesville, VA 22901, USA.
