Factory Girls

Women in the Thread Mills of Meiji Japan

E. Patricia Tsurumi

Put all your strength
into your work.
It's for yourself,
It's for your family,
It's for the country
of Japan.

-Silk Factory Song

Investigating the enormous contribution made by female textile workers to early industrialization in Meiji Japan, Patricia Tsurumi vividly shows that through their experiences as Japan's first modern factory workers, these "factory girls" developed goals and loyalties that shaped their distinct group identity—an identity that played a crucial role in the history of the Japanese working class.

"There is no comparable comprehensive, in-depth study of this topic in English—other books on the economic growth of Meiji Japan do not focus on the human side of the story as Patricia Tsurumi does. She tells a riveting story. . . ."

Of Heretics and Martyrs in Meiji Japan

Buddhism and Its Persecution

James Edward Ketelaar

How did Buddhism, so prominent in Japanese life for over a thousand years, become the target of severe persecution in the social and political turmoil of the early Meiji era? James Ketelaar elucidates not only the development of Buddhism in the late nineteenth century but also the range of strategies by which the emerging Meiji state attempted to produce orthodoxy and cultural hegemony.

"This book demonstrates vividly the historically contingent and quite recent appearance of categories such as 'Buddhism' and 'Shinto.' . . . The work provides a wealth of detail on the policies of both government and organized religion from the late Tokugawa through the mid-Meiji period, illuminating not only the persecution of Buddhism but the institutionalization of State Shinto with a thoroughness and insight that nothing else in English approaches."

EDITORIAL AND SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

The Journal of Asian Studies (ISSN 0021-9118), founded in 1941 and known until September 1956 as the Far Eastern Quarterly, is published by the Association for Asian Studies (formerly The Far Eastern Association) in February, May, August, and November. The annual institutional subscription rate for the Journal (including the Bibliography of Asian Studies and the Doctoral Dissertations on Asia) is $80, postage included. Regular members of the Association for Asian Studies receive the Journal as part of their annual membership. Single issues of the Journal and Bibliography published after February 1974 are available through the Secretariat of the Association. Issues published prior to 1958 may be purchased from A.M.S. Reprints, 56 East 13th Street, New York, NY 10003.

The editor welcomes preliminary inquiries about manuscripts for possible publication in The Journal of Asian Studies. Completed manuscripts should be sent to the editor, David D. Buck, JAS, Department of History, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Milwaukee, WI 53201. Please submit four copies. All submitted work should be double-spaced, including extracts, notes, and references. Because manuscripts cannot be returned, please do not send the original. Consult recent issues of the Journal as a guide to the format for source citations, notes, and references. Footnotes should be as few as possible and typed double-spaced at the end of the text. Documentation should follow the style recommended in sections 15.4 through 15.35 of The Chicago Manual of Style, 13th ed. (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 1982), pp. 400–408. All manuscripts submitted to the JAS are expected not to have been published elsewhere and nor to be under review for possible publication elsewhere. Manuscripts, including notes, should not be more than 40 pages in length.

Authors are encouraged to submit tables, figures, and black-and-white photographs, and other illustrations along with their manuscripts. Photocopies or photos of record are acceptable for first review and should accompany the manuscript at original submission. Authors who wish to illustrate their articles with photographs must provide black-and-white glossy prints of good quality at the time of final delivery of their copyedited manuscript. Please provide a separate, typewritten, double-spaced list of captions and legends for all illustrations, keyed by number to each figure or photograph, including all necessary credit or permission lines. Authors are responsible for securing and paying for permission to use illustrative material. Do not write on the back of photographs or paste photographs to sheets of paper. Identify each photo by typing the first words of its caption on a stick-on label, then affix the label to the back of the photo. Photographs will be returned after publication.

Books for review and correspondence concerning reviews should be sent to the appropriate editor.
