Journal of the International Phonetic Association

Published for the International Phonetic Association

Editor

Amalia Arvaniti, University of Kent, UK

The Journal of the International Phonetic Association (JIPA) is a forum for work in the fields of phonetic theory and description. As well as including papers on laboratory phonetics/phonology and related topics, the journal encourages submissions on practical applications of phonetics to areas such as phonetics teaching and speech therapy, as well as the analysis of speech phenomena in relation to computer speech processing. It is especially concerned with the theory behind the International Phonetic Alphabet and discussions of the use of symbols for illustrating the phonetic structures of a wide variety of languages. JIPA now publishes online audio files to supplement written articles.

Journal of Linguistics

The Journal of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain

Editors

Kersti Börjars, University of Manchester, UK
S.J. Hannahs, Newcastle University, UK

Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

'The Journal of Linguistics is one of the top journals for theoretical linguistics. It's chock full of new ideas and wonderfully free of theoretical orthodoxy.' Ivan Sag, Stanford University.

Copying

This journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, U.S.A. (www.copyright.com). Organisations in the U.S.A. who are registered with the CCC may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by the sections 107 and 108 of U.S.A. copyright law), subject to payment to the CCC. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes.

Organisations authorised by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions.

ISI Tear Sheet Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PE 19104, U.S.A. is authorised to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

For all other use, permission must be sought from the Cambridge or American branch of Cambridge University Press.

Policy

Phonology is concerned with all aspects of phonology and related disciplines. Preference is given to papers which make a substantial theoretical contribution, irrespective of the particular theoretical framework employed, but the submission of papers presenting new empirical data of general theoretical interest is also encouraged.

One of the three issues of a volume is occasionally devoted to a particular theme. The editors welcome proposals for themes and offers to act as guest editors for thematic issues.

Submission of papers

Submissions should be sent to the editors in PDF format, preferably by e-mail. The editorial addresses are: Colin J. Ewen, Opleiding Engels, Universiteit Leiden, Postbus 9515, 2300 RA Leiden, The Netherlands (C.J.EWEN@HUM.LEIDENUNIV.NL); Ellen M. Kaisse, Department of Linguistics, University of Washington, Box 354340, Seattle, WA 98195-4340, U.S.A. (KAISSE@U.WASHINGTON.EDU).

An abstract (no longer than 150 words) should be e-mailed to both editors when the manuscript is submitted. The author's name should not appear on the paper itself, and, as far as possible, should not be identifiable from references in the text.

A full set of notes for contributors can be found on the journal website.

The language of submission and publication is English.

Internet access

Phonology is included in the Cambridge Journals Online service, which can be found at www.journals.cup.org. Information on other Press titles may be accessed at www.journals.cambridge.org or www.cambridge.org.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
