

Securing the Revolution

Ideology in American Politics, 1789-1815

Richard Buel jr.

Skillfully combining historical narrative and political analysis, this book offers a fresh look at the formation of America's first party system. Professor Buel shows how the distinctive styles of the Federalists and Republicans were a natural outgrowth of their political beliefs, and he explores the changes in the character of national politics after 1815, when the modern party system began.

The Politics of Jacksonian Finance

John M. McFaul

Emphasising the central role played by party politics, this book analyses the major banking and currency controversies of the Jacksonian era. Professor McFaul takes issue with standard works on the subject, especially those by Bray Hammond and Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., and offers a realistic and thoroughly integrated assessment of an important aspect of pre-Civil War history.

The War Industries Board

Business-Government Relations during World War 1

Robert D. Cuff

The roots of today's giant military-industrial complex might be found in the War Industries Board, the chief agency of coordination in America's industrial mobilization for World War 1. Robert Cuff examines the goals and techniques of the businessmen who organized the War Industries Board and challenges the traditional interpretation of Bernard Baruch's role in industrial mobilization.

Political Justice in a Republic

James Fenimore Cooper's America

John P. McWilliams, Jr.

Since the 1930s critics have recognised that Cooper's social and political writings, formerly neglected or maligned, comprise an outspoken preceptive view of American culture and politics. Mr. McWilliams attempts to integrate Cooper the popular romancer with Cooper the social critic by examining the ways Cooper treated fundamental questions of political justice within the genre of historical or frontier romances.

Announcing the Iowa-California Edition of the Works of Mark Twain

Roughing It

Mark Twain

Edited, with an Introduction,
by Franklin R. Rogers

The only authentic text of Roughing It to appear since Mark Twain completed the manuscript. Mr. Rogers traces the background and history of the writing of Roughing It and his extensive explanatory notes identify the people, places, and events mentioned in the book. The appendices contain material never before published concerning the Clemens brothers' journey West. 688 pages illustrations $14.95

What is Man?* and Other Philosophical Writings

Mark Twain

Edited, with an Introduction,
by Paul Baender

In this edition of Mark Twain's philosophical writings, including "Letters from the Earth," Christian Science, and What is Man?, Mr. Baender presents authentic and accurate texts of more than twenty works (most unpublished in Twain's lifetime) that express Twain's destiny of man, the providence.

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

This Association was founded in 1955 to promote the study of the United States within the United Kingdom. It welcomes applications for membership from people interested in the history, society, government and politics, economics, geography, literature and thought of the United States. It publishes a Newsletter twice yearly, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning current subscription rates and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Charlotte Erickson, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych, London, WC2A 2AE.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester M13 9PL, England.
2. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Notes intended for the Editor or printer should be on a separate sheet.
8. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
9. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
10. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be ordered according to the scale of charges.
11. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
12. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the U.S.A.
