

FIGHTING FOR IDENTITY

Scottish Military Experiences c. 1550–1900

EDITED BY STEVE MURDOCH AND A. MACKILLOP

This volume examines the impact of military activity upon Scotland's national identity as the country underwent a fundamental transition through domestic centralization at the turn of the seventeenth century, integration into the United Kingdom in 1707, and as a partner in Britain's global empire during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. It is divided into three thematic sections that examine the evolution of Scottish military identity over the early modern period, how the Highland region moved from a relationship of hostility to the Lowland political authorities to the central element in eighteenth-and-nineteenth century Scottish soldiering and, finally, how aspects of Scotland's civilian society interrelated with her soldiers.

GERMANY'S NORTHERN CHALLENGE

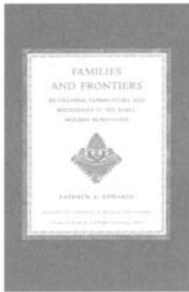

The Holy Roman Empire and the Scandinavian Struggle for the Baltic, 1563–1576

BY JASON LAVERY

Shortly after the Augsburg peace settlement of 1555, from 1563 to 1576, the Holy Roman Empire was threatened by the rivalry between Denmark and Sweden. This book examines the empire's reaction to a foreign crisis, the Seven Years' War of the North, and the connections between foreign policy and internal imperial politics. This study highlights the empire's internal organization and politics by introducing the concepts of initiative and consensus.

FAMILIES AND FRONTIERS

Re-creating Communities and Boundaries in the Early Modern Burgundies

BY KATHRYN A. EDWARDS

As put forth by Edwards, the eastern duchy and the western county of Burgundy constituted a frontier society from the death of Charles the Bold in 1477 until 1540. Through detailed case studies and family reconstructions of elites from the Saône River valley, specifically the cities of Dijon, Dole, and Besançon, this book examines the social, cultural, political, and economic relationships of the Burgundians on a local level. Edwards successfully challenges the national models still frequently used in modern historiography and offers a provocative alternative to better understand this anomalous area and the creation of

IMPERIALISM AT SEA

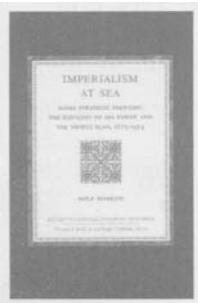

Naval Strategic Thought, the Ideology of Sea Power and the Tirpitz Plan, 1875–1914

BY ROLF HOBSON

This book examines the origins of Wilhelmine Germany's "Tirpitz Plan" of naval rearmament. The evolution of the Imperial Navy's strategic theories is compared with that of the French, British, and United States navies. Particular attention is given to the relationship between strategy and maritime law within the different national schools.

STATE SYMBOLS

The Quest for Legitimacy in the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic, 1949–1959

BY MARGARETE MYERS FEINSTEIN

This study examines the two German governments' attempts from 1949 to 1959 to shape national political identity through state symbols in order to legitimate their rule. It evaluates the extent to which German political culture overcame the Nazi past and points to aspects of a shared heritage upon which today's unified Germany can

HIGH WAY TO HEAVEN

The Augustinian Platform Between Reform and Reformation, 1292–1524

BY ERIC LELAND SAAK

This volume reveals the political, religious, theological, institutional, and mythical ideals that formed the self-identity of the Augustinian Order from Giles of Rome to the emergence of Martin Luther. Based on detailed philological analysis, this interdisciplinary study not only transforms the understanding of Augustine's heritage in the later

Middle Ages, but also that of Luther's relationship to his Order. The work offers a new interpretative model of late medieval religious culture that sheds new light on the relationship between late medieval Passion devotion, the increasing demonization of the Jews, and the rise of catechetical literature. It is the first volume of a planned trilogy that seeks to return late medieval Augustinian theology to the historical context of Augustinian religion.
