

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical Church History consists of an award of $1000 to the author of a book-length manuscript and a possible grant of up to $3000 for publication costs—or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a manuscript accepted for publication. The term “Ecumenical” is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history, or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The winning manuscript must have printed on its title-page, “The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical History of the American Society of Church History.” Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 June. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner 1993: Allen C. Guelzo, For the Union of Evangelical Christendom: The Irony of the Reformed Episcopalians, 1873–1930.

Winner for 1991: Ronald L. Numbers, The Creationists.

THE JANE DEMPSEY DOUGLASS PRIZE

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay on some aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including doubled-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 August each year. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1993: Genevieve McCoy, “Post-Edwardian Calvinism and the Women of the ABCFM Oregon Mission.”

Winner for 1991: Joyce Irwin, “Pietism and Women: A Study in Contrasts.”

BARD THOMPSON
HUMANISTS
&
REFORMERS
A History of the Renaissance and Reformation

"A fascinating, illuminating, judicious, fair, and comprehensive study of the Renaissance, the Reformation, and Catholic renewal. Its distinctive qualities are the vividness of the writing, enlivened with flashes of humor, and its thorough analysis of the theology and politics of the period. Perhaps most remarkable of all is its brilliant use of paintings, sculptures, and architecture of the period illustrated by 140 black-and-white and 82 colored prints. It will prove equally attractive to the scholar and to the intelligent layperson."

PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The Brewer Prize is limited to first books. Manuscripts already accepted for publication may be submitted for this award, but the publication must have printed on its title-page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." The monetary grant will be authorized upon receipt in writing of a commitment from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 November. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The award will be announced at the Spring meeting of the Society. No award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding.

Winner for 1994: Stephen Burnett "From the Jews' Own Books: Johann Buxtorf, Christian Hebraism, and the Emergence of Jewish Studies."

Winner for 1993: Diana Hochstedt Butler, "Standing Against the Whirlwind: A Study of the Evangelical Party in the Protestant Episcopal Church."

Winner for 1992: Gregory Hanlon, "Confession and Community in Seventeenth-Century France: Catholics and Protestants in Acquitaine."

The Philip Schaff Prize

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. This award is given in odd-numbered years. Books published during the two previous calendar years are eligible for the competition. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Copies of nominated books need not be submitted. Titles of nominated books must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701 by 1 March in odd-numbered years. The prize will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1993: Stephen J. Stein, The Shaker Experience in America.

Winner for 1991: David D. Hall, Worlds of Wonder, Days of Judgment: Popular Religious Belief in Early New England.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Sidney E. Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 July. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1992: Alison Williams Lewin, "'Cum Status Ecclesie Noster Sit . . .': Florence and the Council of Pisa (1409)."

Winner for 1991: Ernest Freeburg, "'An Object of Peculiar Interest': The Education of Laura Bridgman."

A Monk's Confession

The Memoirs of Guibert of Nogent

TRANSLATED AND EDITED BY PAUL J. ARCHAMBAULT

"Guibert of Nogent is a major writer who is a favorite of medieval historians. He furnishes a good deal of autobiographical information, somewhat of a rarity for the period, and he gives many details about the commune in France at the beginning of the twelfth century. Paul Archambault has given us an accurate and polished translation, and his introduction places Guibert in the Augustinian tradition where he rightly belongs. An outstanding contribution."—Gerard J. Brault, Penn State University 290 pages paper: $14.95

Criminal Churchmen in the Age of Edward III

The Case of Bishop Thomas de Lisle

JOHN ABERTH

"John Aberth has written a fascinating account of the political career of a fourteenth-century English bishop. Because De Lisle's activities were so wide-ranging, Aberth's book opens a window onto many aspects of fourteenth-century England, from 'bastard feudalism' to the legal system to Church-State relations. Aberth skillfully guides the reader through the thicket of legal and administrative technicalities surrounding these issues."

—Scott L. Waugh, UCLA

296 pages 7 illustrations $45.00

Cathedrals Under Siege

Cathedrals in English Society, 1600–1700

STANFORD E. LEHMBERG

"A very solid achievement of excellent scholarship—massive, extensive, even relentless. . . . [Lehberg] has searched out archival evidence all over the realm and bases his conclusions on a thorough, personal, inspection of the cathedrals of England. . . . The story is beautifully told and proves fascinating."—Sir Geoffrey Elton

A Kingdom on Earth

Anglo-American Social Christianity, 1880–1940

PAUL T. PHILLIPS

Social Christianity was a major force in the United States, Canada, and Britain for over 60 years. A Kingdom on Earth views the movement from both sides of the Atlantic. "An impressive contribution to the corpus of social Christian studies."—Robert T. Handy

One of the greatest ecclesiastical historians of the twentieth century, John Meyendorff held the underlying conviction throughout his career that “there was and is an uninterrupted, consistent, and continuous holy tradition of faith held by the church throughout the centuries.” Identifying that core of apostolic tradition, however, is seldom easy.

In this collection of essays in Meyendorff’s honor, a distinguished team of international scholars offers new perspectives on historical theology by examining continuity and change in the history of Christian thought through fresh interpretations of Scripture, theology, liturgy, and spirituality.

“John Meyendorff’s greatest desire was that scholarly achievements of the highest level of competence would serve to glorify God, instruct Christians, edify the church, and guide good-willed seekers of the truth of Christ. This collection of essays honoring Meyendorff’s memory superbly contributes to the fulfillment of this desire. A fitting tribute to his life and work.”

SECOND EDITION • REVISED AND EXPANDED
EDWARD H. MCKINLEY

"This second edition of Edward McKinley's history is very welcome indeed. Its revisions and expansions are so extensive as to constitute, in effect, a new book. McKinley's graceful prose provides exactly the right vehicle for a cheerful, but also realistic, introduction to The Salvation Army's American history — a history that in these pages is colorful, self-giving, occasionally messy, always Christ-honoring, and wonderfully down-to-earth. This book can be read with great profit by both Army members and outsiders."

— MARK A. NOLL

"This welcome revision, much enlarged and updated, presents in gratifying detail the full and impressive sweep of The Salvation Army's remarkable history. From despised and near-disastrous beginnings, this American force marched with ever steadier steps to its present eminence."

A Religious Biography of Thomas Jefferson

EDWIN S. GAUSTAD

LIBRARY OF RELIGIOUS BIOGRAPHY

“This work shows once again why Edwin S. Gaustad is rightly considered one of our leading historians of American religion. Written with great verve and insight, this book amply shows that Jefferson was a religious quester whose lifelong search for an ultimate meaning in life was one of the mainsprings of his ardent advocacy of religious freedom in the United States.”

— Eugene R. Sheridan

“Effectively employing a biographical approach, Gaustad illuminates with remarkable clarity and perception Jefferson’s views on religion during a long life. The result is a convincing and authoritative study of a complex subject by the leading scholar of Jefferson and religion.”

— Noble E. Cunningham, Jr.

“A graceful and at times even moving meditation on Jefferson’s thinking about religion. . . . The elegant simplicity of the writing here is both accessible and erudite in the best Jeffersonian tradition.”

— Joseph J. Ellis

“An elegantly crafted and incisively argued study of Jefferson’s religion.”

— Joyce Appleby

“This eminently readable book . . . provides a superb introduction to Jefferson’s views on theology, religious freedom, and the formation of virtuous citizens for a republic.”

— Thomas E. Buckley, S.J.

THE THEOLOGY OF JOHN CALVIN

Karl Barth • Translated by Geoffrey W. Bromiley

"These lectures are a significant marker on the road of Barth's theological progress. . . . Barth brings to these lectures a rare congeniality and sensibility for what was at the heart of the Protestant Reformation — then and now. A captivating and reliable introduction to Calvin and to his theology."

— H. MARTIN RUMSCHEIDT

"An important contribution to modern Calvin studies. It deals as much with Calvin's life as with his teachings, and as we would expect, Barth has mastered all the details of Genevan affairs and of Calvin's writings, letters, and disputations to make himself an authority on his subject. This book will prove useful also for its searching introduction to the Middle Ages and Luther."

— RONALD S. WALLACE

"There is no better guide to understanding the roots of Barth's theology in the Reformed tradition, particularly his appreciation of and divergence from Calvin. It is wonderful to have these lectures in English!"
