LENTEN READING

MEDITATIONS IN LENT

Sebastian Bullough, O.P.

These meditations on the Liturgy of Lent were originally published in The Tablet last year and now appear in book form. We feel sure that they will prove every bit as popular as the author's MEDITATIONS IN ADVENT, of which tens of thousands of copies have been sold. 1s. 6d.

THE PAIN OF CHRIST

Gerald Vann, O.P.

Father Vann deals in seven chapters with the Passion of Christ and its implications in the individual soul, and considers the problem of evil and suffering as seen in the world today. 5s.

FUNDAMENTALS OF CATHOLIC ACTION

This is the book for those who imagine that by merely engaging in a flurry of exterior activity they are being helpful to Catholic action in the best way. The author insists on the absolute necessity for integrating our material and intellectual activities into a spiritual framework. He is fully aware of the problems which arise when the lay apostle is confronted with the disturbing complexities of modern life and he has some very practical advice to offer for dealing with these problems.

Approx. 5s.

THE CHURCH IN MY LIFE

In this study of Church spirituality, Father Perrin vividly shows that the Church is not merely a social and historical fact but identical with the Mystical Body. He harks back to the spirituality of the first Christians, who apprehended that the Church is a mystery in which can be found the love that gathers its own together, and at the same time he calls upon all men to join in its unity.

Approx. 10s. 6d.

CHRISTIAN PERFECTION AND MARRIED LIFE

Father Perrin here sets forth the principles by which those so called may find Christian perfection through the married state. He first sets forth the principles necessary for the attainment of such perfection and then devotes the second and longer part of his book to practical suggestions which will be found most helpful both to engaged and young married couples.

6s. 6d.

FORWARD THE LAYMAN

This is the book that every layman ought to read, for the author shows that it is the laity who are the Church, and it is for them to bring about the coming of the Kingdom of God by active and intelligent co-operation with the clergy.
