Augustine

Ancient Thought Baptized

John M. Rist

A significant attempt to provide a detailed and accurate account of the character and effects of Augustine's thought as a whole, this major work outlines the fundamental themes in Augustine's theology and philosophy, and indicates how his chief concerns may speak to us more intelligibly.

Hume's Theory of Consciousness

Wayne Waxman

This book offers a comprehensive analysis and re-evaluation of Hume's Treatise of Human Nature. The author argues for a new understanding of the nature of Hume's scepticism and its relation to his naturalism, and elucidates Hume's views on induction, causality, identity, language, time-consciousness, memory, aspect-seeing and animal reason.

Hegel's Phenomenology

The Sociality of Reason

Terry Pinkard

Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit is at once one of his most widely-read and yet most obscure texts. This book is the most detailed commentary on Hegel's work available and develops an independent philosophical account of the general theory of knowledge, culture, and history contained in it.

The Shape of Space

Second Edition

Graham Nerlich

In this revised and updated edition of his classic book, Graham Nerlich develops a metaphysical account of space as a concrete entity, showing it to play a key explanatory role in space and spacetime theories.

'A fresh – and much needed – realistic perspective to the philosophy of space.'

The Logic of Provability

George Boolos

This book, written by one of the most distinguished of contemporary philosophers of mathematics, is a fully rewritten and updated successor to the author's earlier The Unprovability of Consistency (1979). Its subject is the relation between provability and modal logic, a branch of logic invented by Aristotle but much disparaged by philosophers and virtually ignored by mathematicians.

Permissible Killing

The Self-Defence Justification of Homicide

Suzanne Uniacke

Do individuals have a positive right of self-defence? And if so, what are the limits of this right? These are some of the issues explored by Dr. Uniacke in this comprehensive philosophical discussion of the principles relevant to self-defence as a moral and legal justification of homicide.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Professor Anthony O'Hear, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word-Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory. Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

¹ H. B. Acton, The Philosophy of Punishment (London: Macmillan, 1969), 192–198.

² R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 178 (October 1971), 295.

³ Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

⁴ W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Professor O'Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Professor O'Hear at Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London, WC1H 0AG. All other correspondence should also be addressed to the Institute.
