AJS Review

Published on behalf of the Association for Jewish Studies

Editors

Christine Hayes, Yale University, USA

Magda Teter, Wesleyan University, USA

AJS Review publishes scholarly articles and book reviews covering the field of Jewish Studies. From biblical and rabbinic textual and historical studies to modern history, social sciences, the arts, and literature, the journal welcomes articles of interest to both academic and lay audiences around the world. A substantial portion of each volume is devoted to reviews of the latest scholarly Judaica and to review essays on current trends in publishing as well as to the contents of collected studies and to lists of books received.

Central European History

Published for the Central European History Society

Editor

Andrew I. Port, Wayne State University, USA

Associate Editor (Book Reviews)

Julia Torrie, St. Thomas University, Canada

Central European History offers articles, review essays, and book reviews that range widely through the history of Germany, Austria, and other German-speaking regions of Central Europe from the medieval era to the present. All topics and approaches to history are welcome, whether cultural, social, political, diplomatic, intellectual, economic, and military history, as well as historiography and methodology. Contributions that treat new fields, such as post-1945 and post-1989 history, maturing fields such as gender history, and less-represented fields such as medieval history and the history of the Habsburg lands are especially desired.

Membership

Becoming a member of the Central European History Society is easy! Membership comes with a subscription to the journal Central European History (CEH). Subscribe to the journal and join the group.
