by

Sister Mary Laurence, O.P.

Encouraged by the success of She Takes the Veil, Sister Laurence has prepared a further volume of letters on the religious life—this time clearing away some popular misconceptions about the life of nuns, explaining in some detail the nature and working of the vows of poverty, obedience, etc. Of great value to any young woman interested in the religious life.

LAVERTYS'

Completely New Edition of the

Daily Missal & Liturgical Manual

Entirely reset in Bolder and Clearer Type throughout

The Ordinary of the Mass is placed in the centre of the Missal with the English on one page and the Latin on the opposite page with the rubrics in red.

Bishop Heenan says:—

"The new Laverty Missal will be welcomed by the laity. The English is printed in bolder, clearer type. I recommend this new edition especially for the simplicity of the arrangement of Masses both of the seasons and the saints. A child could be taught to use this Missal in a few minutes."

For its compactness, typography, contents and arrangement The Catholic Times describes it as a "A MASTERPIECE"
