

THE POWER OF THE PEOPLE

Everyday Resistance and Dissent in the Making of Modern Turkey, 1923-38

MURAT METINSOY, ISTANBUL UNIVERSITY

“Metinsoy has produced here a fascinating account of popular politics in the new Turkish republic, writing ‘ordinary people’, in all their individual and collective complexity, back in to the centre of the national narrative. Highly original, it will transform scholarly understanding of early Kemalist Turkey.”

Stephanie Cronin, University of Oxford

“Metinsoy challenges the top-down narratives of early Turkish Republic state imposition and acquiescence from its ‘hapless’ populace. Tax evasion, smuggling, banditry, and public complaint from the village coffeehouse to the factory floor weave a rich tapestry of everyday resistance, providing a superb alla Turca sequel to James Scott’s classic work.”

Michael Wuthrich, University of Kansas
