Manuscripts should be double-spaced and not exceed 12,000 words. Manuscripts must not be under consideration elsewhere, and must not have been previously published. BEQ encourages authors to use non-sexist language. Please see the BEQ website for additional important information for contributors.

Manuscripts will be reviewed initially by one of the editors for style, format, topical appropriateness vis-à-vis business ethics, and scholarly (as opposed to journalistic) orientation. Manuscripts that pass this initial review will then be double-blind reviewed by at least two reviewers. Every attempt will be made to notify authors of the status of their manuscripts within three months of submission.

Authors should provide an abstract for each article (maximum of 150 words).

Authors will receive proofs for the correction of typographical errors and minor changes prior to publication. Shortly after publication of a manuscript, the author will receive a complimentary copy of that issue of BEQ.
