

Manuscripts:

All editorial correspondence and proofs should be sent to: Prof. J.F. Haldon, Centre for Byzantine, Ottoman & Modern Greek Studies, The University of Birmingham, P.O. Box 363, Birmingham B15 2TT. Contributions should be in English (excluding citations from references and sources).

The normal maximum length for an article is 8,000 words plus footnotes; for Critical Studies, 3,500 words; for Short Notes, 1,000 words; and for a Review, around 2,000 words. All articles should be preceded by a short abstract, summarising the key points/conclusions of the article, of no more than 100 words.

All contributions will be anonymously reviewed by at least one member of the Board and one other reader.

All manuscripts must be typewritten, double-spaced on A4 paper and in clear type. Footnotes and/or references in the text (in parentheses) may be used. Where footnotes only are provided, full references should be given for each work cited. No bibliography is necessary. Where references in the text only are provided a full bibliography is required. Where both references in the text and footnotes are employed, the abbreviated reference should be used throughout; but all references must be given in a bibliography.

For the use of italics, abbreviations, referencing conventions etc., contributors should follow the example of current issues. For further, detailed notes, apply to the editor or refer to the BMGS web site: <http://www.bham.ac.uk/bomg/bmgs>
