THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The Society is a professional association devoted to the study and use of law in international affairs. Membership is open to people of all nations, lawyers and non-lawyers, who are interested in the challenging problems of law and policy. Its large and diverse membership of some 4,000, drawn from nearly one hundred countries, includes scholars, practitioners, government officials, international civil servants, and students.

Founded in 1906, the Society serves as a meeting place, forum, and collegial research center, hospitable to all viewpoints in its meetings, publications, and other activities. Publications include the American Journal of International Law, International Legal Materials, Studies in Transnational Legal Policy, the ASIL Newsletter, and reports and books produced by its programs of research, study, and outreach.

The Society is a nonpartisan, tax-exempt, nonprofit corporation headquartered at Tillar House on Sheridan Circle in Washington, DC.

It is the policy of the American Society of International Law not to take an official position, by resolution or otherwise, upon controversial questions. The views expressed in the addresses, remarks, and discussions delivered at the ASIL Annual Meeting and appearing in its printed Proceedings are those of the individual speakers and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Society.

SUBSCRIPTION AND AUTHORIZATION-OF-USE INFORMATION
