

“This is the backstory behind one of the biggest stories in China. . . . The publication of The War on the Uyghurs could not be more timely.”
 —Barbara Demick, former Beijing bureau chief, Los Angeles Times, author of Nothing to Envy

“One of the most important books on political regimes written in a generation.”
 —Steven Levitsky, New York Times-bestselling author of How Democracies Die

“A veritable tour de force, this ambitious book expands our thinking about elections. . . . It is essential reading for everyone interested in the functioning of elections in contemporary societies.”
 —Cees van der Eijk, University of Nottingham

“An accessible and novel study of the interplay of dominance and innovation that drives the current transformation of European party politics. This is comparative politics at its finest.”
 —Cas Mudde, University of Georgia

“A towering achievement and a vital contribution to the comparative study of democratization.”
 —Tarek Masoud, Harvard University

“Dominic Johnson has written a very timely book. Relying on psychology and evolutionary biology, he draws a far more realistic picture of human decision making than rational choice theory allows.”
 —Anne-Marie Slaughter, CEO of New America

NAZITA LAJEVARDI

OUTSIDERS AT HOME

The Politics of American Islamophobia

“Outsiders at Home is a deep and expansive investigation into the nature of US Islamophobia. At the heart of this book is a wide-ranging, rigorous analysis of an incredible variety of sources that help us to understand public attitudes toward Muslims. At the same time, Lajevardi’s book, including her attention to the perceptions of Muslims related to discrimination and hostility, is a poignant reflection on the nature of belonging in the United States.”

RAISE THE VOTE

Resources to Amplify and Increase Student Engagement

Join APSA's RAISE the Vote Campaign

Share the work of political scientists to encourage student civic engagement

Contribute to the American Political Science Association's (APSA) RAISE the Vote Campaign, a nonpartisan initiative that aims to provide political science faculty with the tools needed to effectively encourage student registration, voting, and democratic engagement. RAISE stands for "Resources to Amplify and Increase Student Engagement." The campaign includes accessible blog post contributions from political scientists highlighting their research, teaching, and campus engagement related to civic engagement and voting. Support the Study of Political Science

Member support is a terrific benefit to present and future members of APSA and countless students of political science and citizens who believe in the importance of our work. Every dollar has helped provide resources for scholars around the world at all career levels.

APSA members and supporters have written books and have chosen to donate their royalties to us.

You too can support the study of political science with a gift of royalties. Ask your publisher to send your royalty gift directly to APSA.

Political science plays an essential and vital role in our understanding of global issues and your generosity, and that of other supporters, enables APSA to continue meeting the needs of the political science community.

Join us in our mission to deepen the understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship. Next Steps:

- 1. Ask your publisher to send your royalty payment directly to APSA at 1527 New Hampshire Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20036.
- 2. Make sure they include your name with the payment so we can thank you.
- 3. Contact us at development@apsanet.org so we know to expect your gift.
