TERROR IN THE MIND OF GOD

The Global Rise of Religious Violence
MARK JUERGENSMEYER

"Half of the world's thirty most dangerous terrorist groups claim religion as their motivation. How can the word of God sanction acts of terror against human beings? How can violence become a sacred duty? These are the questions at the heart of Mark Juergensmeyer's calm, lucid, insightful and compassionate book." —Michael Ignatieff, author of The Warrior's Honour

MASS MEDIATIONS

New Approaches to Popular Culture in the Middle East and Beyond
Edited by WALTER ARMBRUST

Offering a stimulating diversity of perspectives, this collection examines how popular culture through mass media defines the scale and character of social interaction in the Middle East. The contributors approach popular culture broadly, with an interest in how it creates new scales of communication and new dimensions of identity that affect economics, politics, aesthetics, and performance.

PAPERBACKS

TO SEE AND SEE AGAIN

A Life in Iran and America
TARA BHRAMPOUR

"Much more than another well-told life story. A profound reflection on the immigrant journey, To See and See Again is also a veiled and subtle—and in those ways highly Persian—defense of a place and a people that Americans have vilified for so long."

$17.95 paper

TO RULE JERUSALEM

ROGER FRIEDLAND and
RICHARD HECHT

With a New Afterword

"The Israeli-Palestinian conflict has been plentifully explored, but what makes this volume so engrossing is the way the authors open up the conflicts and dynamics within each side."—San Francisco Examiner

$24.95 paper

VEILED SENTIMENTS

Honor and Poetry in a Bedouin Society
LILA ABU-LUGHOD

Updated Edition With a New Preface

"A fascinating, fresh interpretation.

... The argument is compelling—it makes sense of honor killings, the veiling of women and a seemingly excessive sexual modesty. There is a certain excitement here, as the pieces of the puzzle fall into place."

—New York Times Book Review
