

Journal of Historical Sociology

Edited by Philip Corrigan, Martha Lampland, Daniel Nugent, Derek Sayer, Gavin Williams and Leon Zamosc

The Journal of Historical Sociology was founded in 1988 on the conviction that historical and social studies ultimately have a common subject matter and can only benefit from the interchange of ideas and perspectives. The journal fills a major gap between the humanities and social sciences and is both interdisciplinary in approach and innovative in content. As well as refereed articles, the journal presents review essays and commentary and aims to provoke discussion and debate within and across disciplines.
