Social Philosophy and Policy is an interdisciplinary journal with an emphasis on the philosophical underpinnings of enduring social policy debates. The issues are thematic in format, examining a specific area of concern with contributions from scholars in philosophy, economics, political science and law. While not primarily a journal of policy prescriptions, some articles in each issue will typically connect theory with practice.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

All submissions to Episteme must be made through the ScholarOne Manuscripts site:
<http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/epi>

Papers should be double-spaced: font in 12 point Times New Roman. Articles not longer than 12,000 words are desirable. Longer pieces may be allowed at the editor's discretion. All self-identifying marks should be removed from the article itself to facilitate blind reviews. Submitting an article to Episteme implies that it has not been published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Authors must obtain written permission to publish any material of which they do not own the copyright. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and you will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Instructions for contributors can be found at: http://assets.cambridge.org/EPI/EPI_ifc.pdf
