HILARY J. CARPENTER, O.P.

REQUIESCANT IN PACE

We record with the deepest regret the triple loss that the Church at large and Catholic letters in particular have suffered in the recent deaths of Archbishop Goodier, S.J., Father Keating, S.J., Editor of our contemporary, The Month, and Fr. Cuthbert, O.S.F.C. Each has done yeoman service with the pen and to each BLACKFRIARS recognises its indebtedness not only for the material help it has received from them, but almost more for the personal interest they have taken in it, and above all for the splendid example of unflagging work, apostolic zeal, unfailing charity and saintliness of life which they offered. May God give them rest and the reward of their labours.
