

THE LEGAL STATUS OF BERLIN

I. D. Hendry and M. C. Wood

Legal Counsellors at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office

A description of the unique legal status of Berlin as it emerges from the practice of the four Occupying Powers (UK, France, USA and USSR) and the various German authorities.

Set within the framework of the legal position of Germany as a whole, the topics covered by the book include access to Berlin, its relations with the FRG and with international organizations, demilitarization and security issues.

Of interest to all concerned with the history of post-war Europe and the present structure of East-West relations.

"... It is the inestimable merit of the authors' achievement that they describe the actual status of Berlin in full detail... with its documentary annex (including maps, list of treaties, arrangements and legislative measures), this work is a lighthouse on the shores of a vast sea of literature on Berlin."

TERRORISM AND HOSTAGES IN INTERNATIONAL LAW – A COMMENTARY ON THE HOSTAGES CONVENTION 1979

Joseph J. Lambert

This book provides an in-depth commentary on the Hostages Convention and, to a lesser extent, the seven other agreements dealing with offences related to terrorism.

The first part examines the general background to the Hostages Convention, the growth in the phenomenon of international terrorism and the various efforts of the world community to deal with it.

The second and largest part of the book is an entirely new and comprehensive article-by-article commentary on the Hostages Convention itself. Drawing principally upon the preparatory work of this Convention and the other anti-terrorism conventions, the author analyzes in detail each provision of the Convention as well as its efficacy as a whole in the fight against terrorism.

Among the legal issues examined in relation to international terrorism are extradition, asylum, mutual assistance in criminal matters, State responsibility, international efforts to prevent terrorism, the establishment of extra-territorial jurisdiction, the principle of non-refoulement, the relationship between terrorism and the laws of armed conflict, and the use of force in response to terrorism.

The author:

Dr Lambert is a member of the New York and Massachusetts bars. After graduating from law school in the United States, the author specialized in international law at Cambridge University where he obtained the LL.M. and Ph.D. degrees. He was a Research Scholar of the University of Cambridge Research Centre for International Law, 1985–1988. Dr Lambert is now associated with the New York law firm of Dewey, Ballantine, Bushby, Palmer & Wood.

WORLD SECURITY FOR THE 21st CENTURY: CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS

Benjamin B. Ferencz

1991 250p. (projected) $42.50

A week-long Soviet-American colloquium in late June 1990 at Pace University Law School brought together legal experts from the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. in a dialogue about what was needed to replace the law of force by the force of law. Topics focused on ways to establish a legal basis for rational management of the planet in the 21st century, the environment, U.N. reform, peaceful settlement of disputes, jurisdiction for the World Court and the establishment of an international criminal court.

Benjamin Ferencz, former prosecutor at the Nuremberg War Crimes Trials, is Director of the Pace University International Peace Center.

THE REFORM OF THE UNITED NATIONS: A Report

Joachim W. Müller

1991 price & pages to be announced

In 1986, after 40 years in existence, the United Nations embarked on the first major reform effort, triggered by a financial crisis which reflected the discontent of some member states. This new report offers a comprehensive account of that reform, and will conclude with the forthcoming results of the process to be completed in 1990. An exciting story is told, starting with the recommendations of the 'Group of 18' to reform the organizational structure, the utilization of resources and the budgetary process. The different positions of the United States, the Soviet Union, the developing countries, Western Europe and Japan are highlighted.

Joachim W. Müller is an officer in the Programme Planning and Budget Division of the UN Secretariat.

INTERNATIONAL LAW REPORTS

Edited by

E. Lauterpacht, C.B.E., Q.C. and C. J. Greenwood

Decisions of international courts and arbitrators, as well as judgments of national courts, are fundamental elements of modern public international law. The International Law Reports is the only publication in the world wholly devoted to the regular and systematic reporting in English of such decisions. It is an absolutely essential work of reference.

The series incorporates a number of important aids:

- Concise but comprehensive summaries of each case
- Key-word headings
- Digest of cases by reference to key-words
- Tables of cases, both alphabetical and by reference to tribunals
- Tables of treaties referred to
- Detailed indexes

The cases are drawn from every relevant jurisdiction — international and national. All decisions in foreign languages are translated into English.

There is no question here of choosing between this series and some other. There is no other publication that even remotely provides a comparable coverage of case law in this field.

The series is a MUST for every library that needs to provide even minimal international law coverage. It is also the most ECONOMICAL AND EFFICIENT way of accessing the whole range of international case law material.

IN TWO VOLUMES CONSOLIDATED TABLES OF CASES AND TREATIES CONSOLIDATED INDEXES for VOLUMES 1–80

To be published in Autumn 1990 — these up to date consolidations of the Tables of Cases and Treaties and of the Indexes will make the use of the International Law Reports even easier and enhance the value to practitioner and scholar alike of this unique source of international judicial material.
