

If Juliet had no balcony,
it wouldn't be much of a scene.

The theater needs every trained Juliet it can get. But the theater also needs the talent that creates Juliet's world . . . from her flowing gowns to the streets of Verona.

If you're serious about being a "world-creator," enroll at the Goodman School of Drama. You can prepare yourself for a career in Costume Design, Scene Design, Technical Production, Acting or Directing and earn an accredited degree at the same time.

Inquire immediately. Start working toward a place in one of the most exciting of all worlds . . . the world of the theater.

Student power in China

The Cultural Revolution began at Peking University. Why? How did it start and how did it develop? In one of the most detailed accounts yet to appear, Victor Nee describes China's educational system and the student campaign to revolutionize it. Prior to book publication, "The Cultural Revolution at Peking University" appears in full as this summer's double issue. Send for your sample copy now.
