Trade and Politics on the Gold Coast 1600–1720

A Study of the African Reaction to European Trade

KWAME YEBOA DAAKU

In the seventeenth century the trading nations of Western Europe came to the Gold Coast in search of gold and slaves. The firearms trade in exchange for slaves turned the country, formerly a gold mine, into a slave mart by the end of the century. It is only by understanding this turbulent history that we can fully appreciate the making of modern Ghana. 4 maps 50/-

The Mahdist State in the Sudan 1881–1898

A Study of its Origins, Development, and Overthrow

P. M. HOLT

In the twelve years since this book was written, the history of the Sudan in the Mahdist period has been the subject of a good deal of research. The second edition has been revised in the light of this fuller information. The section on 'The Mahdist Idea' has been completely rewritten, and others have been greatly revised and expanded.
